Congressmen Pledge Probe Of 'No-Recourse' Loans

By CARROLL WILSON

Congressmen Graham Purcell and Bob Price pledged this week they will investigate the law which says FHA-insured loans must carry a no-recourse clause for houses and apartment complexes.

The Canyon News called for the investigation after learning last week that no-recourse loans insured by FHA may be resulting in the loss of millions of tax dollars annually.

The two congressmen also pledged that if their investigations indicate that no-recourse loans have become drains on taxpayer money they will introduce legislation to change the law.

FHA officials in Lubbock told The News last week that defaults on no-recourse loans are "a nationwide scandal."

A no-recourse loan, simply stated, means that a lending company will not hold the person to whom the money is loaned personally responsible if payments on the loan cannot be met. Rather, the FHA, which officials say is required by law to attach the no-recourse rider on an insured project, will assume responsibility for the remainder of the loan.

Congressman Purcell said this week he was not aware that the law required an FHA-insured loan to be no-recourse in nature. "I'm willing to find out if the law requires this and then I'll be glad to get that law changed," he said.

The congressman said he realized there had been some trouble with FHA insured loans, but had not understood the source of the trouble.

Clerk LeRoy Hutton said anyone who expects to be absent from the county on election day may vote absentee by appearing in person at either office.

If a person is currently out of town and will not be in the county between now and election day he may contact Hutton by mail for a mail ballot.

Hutton said his offices will remain open Oct. 28 and 29 from 2-8 p.m. in Amarillo for absentee balloting.

Congressman Price, who said the FBI is investigating several FHA-insured projects in the Dallas area, called the no-recourse rider law "a rotten deal."

"Anybody could go in and as long as they could show some substance could get one of these loans," he said. "Then, if the thing went bankrupt the taxpayers would lose."

Price said he'd like to know the loss record for the last five years.

He vowed to investigate the no-recourse law and, if it proved to be a loophole, to introduce legislation to change the law.

Don Earney, director of the district insuring office for the Department of Housing and Urban Development in Lubbock, told The News last week a no-recourse rider is attached to each deed of trust filed in connection with an FHA insured loan.

"I frankly think we should have recourse on a loan when someone just walks off and leaves his house or anything," he said.

Earney said with the no-recourse rider, would-be mortgagees, since they are not held personally responsible, could "walk off" from an FHA insured loan and "leave us holding the bag."

Firemen begin the clean-up procedure after a fire Tuesday night destroyed 12,000 poinsettia plants and heavily damaged three greenhouse buildings at Irwin Greenhouse, Inc., north of Canyon. Owner Jim Irwin speculated the cause of the fire may have been faulty wiring.

Fire Destroys Flowers, Buildings At Greenhouse

A slow-burning fire virtually destroyed three buildings and 12,000 poinsettia plants maturing for the Christmas season late Tuesday at Irwin Greenhouses, Inc., about four miles north of Canyon.

Six units from the Canyon Fire Department fought the blaze, which one fire official termed a unique fire, for less than 20 minutes.

Damage has been estimated at near the $150,000 mark.

Fiberglass siding burned slowly in the dark and wilted the poinsettia plants inside the three northernmost buildings. Fire partially damaged two other buildings in a northern bank of eight greenhouses.

Twenty greenhouse buildings make up the greenhouse complex.

Fire Capt. Joe Rice said the local fire department received the call on the fire at about 10:30 p.m. Tuesday.

"This was a unique call," he said, "in that we used only a couple of hundred gallons of water and the fire caused that much damage."

Rice said fiberglass is relatively easily doused.

Jim Irwin, owner of the greenhouses, watched firemen clean up after fighting the blaze. His face darkened by soot, Irwin hurried from building to building, concerned about the safety of his other greenhouses.

Irwin speculated that faulty wiring caused the fire.

Pointing to a breezeway-type structure between the north 8-building bank of greenhouses and his other greenhouses to the south, Irwin said the fire held the potential to destroy all his buildings and their contents. The breezeway was constructed of sheet metal.

As firemen were preparing to leave Tuesday night, Irwin was trying to contact an electrician to restore electricity to his other greenhouses for temperature control and watering devices.

He said the fire wiped out his area-famous production of Christmas poinsettias.

"We'll take care of our customers somehow," he said.

Absentee Vote Underway Here

Absentee balloting for the Nov. 7 general election began Wednesday in the Randall County clerk's Canyon and Amarillo offices.

Clerk LeRoy Hutton said anyone who expects to be absent from the county on election day may vote absentee by appearing in person at either office.

If a person is currently out of town and will not be in the county between now and election day he may contact Hutton by mail for a mail ballot.

Hutton said his offices will remain open Oct. 28 and 29 from 2-8 p.m. in Amarillo for absentee balloting.

Dowlen Backs State Death Bill

If Texas legislators had been called into another special session this week by Gov. Preston Smith, Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowlen feels certain they would have taken action on a bill establishing a mandatory death penalty for certain crimes.

Dowlen, a member of the organization which has pushed for the new legislation, said the sooner the bill is passed into law the better.

The bill, which was written by the Texas County and District Attorneys Association, was presented the legislature Monday by Rep. Jack Ogg of Houston.

But, due to a mechanical rule in the legislature which says a bill must be presented a minimum of three days before the end of a session, the bill remained in committee.

Dowlen was confident it would be revived had the governor called a special session to continue the session completed at midnight Tuesday.

The bill provides a mandatory life or death penalty for persons committing the following crimes: murder of a police officer acting in the line of duty; intentional murder during a kidnapping, burglary, rape or arson; murder committed while escaping from a penal institution; murder of a prison guard; murder with extreme atrocity or under circumstances showing exceptional depravity.

A two-time convicted murderer would also come under the bill's provisions.

Vietnamese Orphanage Needs Clothing, Items

Clothing and other items for an orphanage in Vietnam are being collected this week by Canyon Junior High School Future Homemakers of America.

The homemakers, sponsored by Mrs. Lynette Whitley, are sponsoring a drive which will end Tuesday to collect the supplies. The club has already earned enough money to ship the items to the orphanage.

Price, Purcell? Downstate Unsure

BY BOB HAMILTON

(The Canyon News asked Bob Hamilton, publisher of the Iowa Park Leader to write the following article indicating the feeling of voters in the Wichita Falls area concerning the Bob Price-Graham Purcell race for Congress.)

In an ordinary election year, you'd have to say Graham Purcell is a shoo-in to be returned to Congress in the Nov. 7 general election from the newly organized 13th district.

But, there's a persistent nagging this year: "I really don't know for sure."

Purcell is at home in the Southeastern portion of the 13th district. It's been his life-long home and he's taken all comers in previous elections and won walking away. No Republican, in fact, has ever even posed a challenge.

But, now, you can't be so sure about how the distinctive-looking veteran politician will fare next month.

Pampa's Bob Price would ordinarily pose no problem to Purcell in Wichita Falls area boxes. In any other campaign year, Price would do well to even get his name mentioned by the news media here, let alone be mentioned as a serious threat.

Sen. John Tower is the only Republican who has made it successfully on the campaign trail here.

But, the north central Texas area is conservative.

And, so far as many voters here are concerned, the national Democratic Party has left them.

The effect this area's voter opinion of the national party will have on Purcell is not really in clear sight now. Opinions on the outcome are about as numerous as people willing to give them.

In this area, Purcell figures he can get before the people and he does it. He's at every gathering larger than a Sunday school class and lately he's taken the caravan route visiting every town and wide spot in the road.

Price, on the other hand, is apparently attempting to be seen not just as an individual, but as a spokesman for the Nixon administration.

He's made public appearances here with such administration big guns as Secretary of Agriculture Butz and Secretary of Defense Laird.

The Republican nominee has started something in this area which he's been doing for some time in the Panhandle. One of his staff members is traveling to area towns where he listens to complaints or problems people have with the federal government.

And, late last winter, the Congressman was holding what he termed town hall meetings throughout this part of the state. But, not many people showed up.

Price's appeal to the people in the southeastern part of the district doesn't appear to have generated a lot of outward support. But, not many people are stumping for Purcell either.

You get the feeling here that Purcell would carry the area with a landslide vote were it not for George McGovern and his new Democratic Party. Purcell is a Democrat and he won't publicly reject the South Dakota liberal.

Whether a Republican outsider can defeat a local Democratic candidate with an albatross around his neck remains to be seen.

But it's a cinch that neither one is a shoo-in for the seat in this part of the territory.

MVC Stresses Education, Visiting Commissioner Says

BY JIM SANDS

The Missouri Valley Conference "is the educational conference," says Mickey Holmes, commissioner of the athletic organization of which West Texas State University is a member.

Commissioner Holmes, in his first year at the helm of the MVC, talked of sports fitting into the scholastic picture of member schools while he was in the area last weekend. He said he had come to WTSU to become acquainted with the school, its program and its administration.

During a news conference, Holmes said the MVC is the only such athletic conference which requires athletes to work toward a degree. "Scholastic achievement requirements are the toughest in the coun-

WEAL Head Due Here Next Week

The president of the Texas Women's Equity Action League (WEAL) will be in Canyon next week and is scheduled to speak at several functions.

Dr. Paula Latimer, a Dallas housewife turned activist, will be met at Amarillo Air Terminal at 9 a.m. Wednesday by a group of Young Democrats from West Texas State University.

Dr. Latimer, who filed a civil rights complaint against the university for discrimination against women last winter, will speak to the Young Democrats at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the activities center.

Thursday afternoon, Dr. Latimer has said she will attend a civil service board meeting in Amarillo called to hear the case of Amarillo Police Sgt. John Bacon, who was promoted recently to lieutenant and then demoted again to sergeant.

Dr. Latimer will speak to the American Civil Liberties Union from this area at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the activities center at WTSU.

On Friday, the WEAL president will spend most of her day on the university campus. She is scheduled to speak to several sociology classes.

During the past year, Dr. Latimer has either taken action or helped others take action in cases involving apparent discrimination in Canyon.

Last winter, she filed a complaint with the Office of Civil Rights in Dallas alleging WTSU discriminates against women.

An investigating team from the Dallas office visited the campus last summer, and verified her complaint and established certain corrective action programs for the university to follow.

Also during the summer, Dr. Latimer helped Mrs. Marguerite Strain, an employee of the city of Canyon, in her efforts to file a complaint against the Texas Municipal Employees Retirement System.

Mrs. Strain charged the system discriminates against women because it will pay benefits on two different scales—one for men, which is the higher,

Roping Tests Begin Sat. At Happy

The third annual Wesley-Sims Memorial Roping, sponsored annually by the Happy Rodeo Association, begins at 2 p.m. Saturday at Happy Rodeo Arena.

Jackpot calf roping begins the two-day roping event Saturday. Steer roping gets underway at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Fifty-four calf ropers will be competing Saturday for more than $2700 and a hand-tooled trophy saddle. Forty-seven steer ropers will compete Sunday for more than $12,000 prize money and a trophy saddle.

Among this year's entrants are Troy Fort of Lovington, N.M., Clark McIntyre of Kiowa, Okla., Walter Arnold of Silverton, Tuffy Thompson of Happy, James Allen of Santa Anna, Olin Young of Peralta, N.M., Sonny Davis of Kenna, N.M., Wade Lewis of Hereford, Paul Howard of Farwell and Don McLaughlin of Fort Collins, Colo.

Each day's contest will include a contest during which each unexpected results from the Randall County commissioners court.

Last May, commissioners voted to pay the constable $1 per year with no office space or car allowance.

Since his race is uncontested, Randle will no doubt win election as constable in the Canyon area and his term of office will begin Jan. 1.

What he does from there is anybody's guess.

State statutes outline a constable's duties:

"Each constable shall execute and return according to law all processes, warrants and precepts to him directed and delivered by any lawful officer, attend upon all justice courts held in his precinct and perform all such duties required of him by law."

The law also provides that in case he has trouble serving a warrant, he can summon a posse.

Since Randle will be the first constable the county's had in years, county officials are in a quandary about what his job will really be. He has no office space, no car and no salary.

"I don't think it's going to work so well," said (See RANDLE, Page 5)

Bufs To Face Huskies In Illinois Contest Sat.

West Texas State University's Buffaloes, fresh from a record-breaking offensive effort against New Mexico State University, will tackle the Northern Illinois Huskies at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Buffaloes rushed for 578 yards in the 63-14 victory over New Mexico State and that total is a new Missouri Valley Conference single game record, bettering the old mark of 534 set by Tulsa against Kansas State in 1951.

Three Buffalo backs — Cole Fraley, Billy Pritchett and Rick Schleider — exceeded 100 yards in rushing. Fraley had 162, Schleider 145 and Pritchett 139.

In Northern Illinois, the Buffaloes will be facing the biggest team they have met this season. The Huskies front defensive four averages 250 pounds per man.

Northern Illinois, with a 3-3 season record, features the power running of 230-pound junior Mark Keller. He has 683 yards and has scored six touchdowns.

Tailback Jerry Latin is next with 393 yards and one touchdown. To match that, the Buffaloes have three running backs with at least 300 yards. Fraley leads the team with a total of 455 yards. Pritchett, an All-Missouri Valley selection last year, has 400 yards and Jimmy Lisle has 300.

The Huskies hold a big edge over the Buffaloes in passing. Mike Wartes is leading Buff thrower with 13 completions in 40 attempts for 261 yards and two touchdowns. Northern Illinois is led by quarterback Terry Dragan, who has 29 completions in 67 attempts for 369 yards.

Split End Willie Hatter, an All-American candidate, is the leading Huskie receiver with 16 receptions for 251 yards. Tight end Don Martin is next with eight catches for 96 yards.

The Huskies have wins over Illinois State, 21-7; Marshall, 24-

PTA Drive Champs Win Banana Splits

BY TROYCE MULHERIN
GREETINGS:
WINNERS—BANANA SPLIT parties were the order of the day Monday at Gene Howe school. Loy Bell's first grade class tied in the PTA membership drive contest for grades kindergarten through third.

Mrs. Marguerite Green's sixth grade class took first place honors in the contest for the fourth through sixth grades. Approximately ninety banana splits were constructed and were happily consumed by the deserving youngsters in these three rooms.

TOTAL PTA MEMBERSHIP for Gene Howe climbed to 490 so far this year. Darlyne Bell serves as Membership Chairman. Margaret Ingram, Beth Balke and Tootie Bybee round out this committee. These ladies have expended a lot of time and effort in so ably fulfilling their responsibilities on this committee. A big job—well done.

ANOTHER WINNER—KODY Patterson. Kody is the representative from the Gene Howe band who brought home the $5.00 prize for selling the most tickets in dollars for the spaghetti supper sponsored by the Canyon band parents. Kody's mom and dad are Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Patterson. Kody is in Mrs. Parson's sixth grade homeroom at Gene Howe.

MRS. DON GLENN, one of Gene Howe's campus representatives to the band parents club, feels it could easily be said that the spaghetti supper was a success. Over 600 people were served, more than were expected. The support and encouragement shown regarding this supper are greatly appreciated, and plans for next year are being formulated. Thank you, Peoples.

MORE WINNERS—A great big "congratulations to you all" for Coaches Schmidt and Balke and their sixth grade team—hereafter to be known as Champions! This team played Margaret Wills last Sunday, and when the final whistle blew, our boys were champions of the Cimarron League. That's the way, Big Birds. "Big Birds" is the phraseology coined by this team's enthusiastic cheerleaders. Gene Howe Falcons—Big Birds, get it? You know who had to have it explained in detail. Anyway, we are all proud of these young men and appreciative of the honor they have brought to our area.

DORIS AND JAMES Nash and youngsters, Susan and Tim, spent a weekend recently in Red River, square dancing mostly. Doris said the color was fading fast, but still beautiful. Same sentiments were expressed by Pat Seth. She and Bill went up this same weekend with their square dance club for the annual Aspen Festival sponsored by the Red River Chamber of Commerce. Tim, Bill and Chris Seth went up, too, but skipped the dancing. Talk about a young man with foresight, Bill Seth put his time to work securing a job for himself in Red River next summer. He is apparently planning ahead to combine business and pleasure.

THERE ARE TEN couples in the Seth's square dance club, and Pat relates that if there are any couples in the Gene Howe area interested in becoming square dancers, this club will start conducting lessons for them. Call either the Nashs or the Seths, if you would like to start lessons. Fun way to exercise, not to mention the excellent companionship of fellow square dancers.

EVEN ANOTHER WINNER—lovely young lady by the name of Ronda Ray. Ronda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olen G. Ray and a member of Scout Troop 8 at Gene Howe. Her leader, Mrs. Guy Bufkin, is quite proud of Ronda's accomplishments and interest in her Scout work. To date Ronda has earned 39 badges out of a total of 47 badges available to her. She has also earned the Sign of the Star and the Sign of the Arrow. These accomplishments reflect a great deal of determination and effort on Ronda's part and it is to the credit of her troop, her leader and her mother. A fine young lady of whom we can be justly proud.

MORE WINNERS—THIS is how Sherrie Cates rates "her team" and their work with the den leader training course recently completed. The course was held at the First United Methodist Church. Special thanks to the church for the use of the hall and for the coffee furnished to those undertaking the course. Mrs. Sarah Edwards presented Stunts, Skits and Puppets; Mrs. Betty Stokes presented Games; and, Mrs. Pat Seth presented the Crafts section of the training. Mrs. Cates is the Den Leader Coach for Pack 130 of Gene Howe. This pack is reponsible for the presentation of the Stunts, Skits and Puppets program at the Councilwide Pow Wow to be held this Saturday. Mrs. Edwards will be doing the honors in this presentation, and Mrs. Stokes will be assisting her. These ladies deserve recognition and much thanks for their work with the scouts—and we thank you all, very much.

GENE HOWE AREA faces seen at the initiation of students in the National Junior Honor Society recently held in Canyon. Laura Taylor played musical selections; Darla Carthel and Becky Hawkins were two of the trio who sang so beautifully. Students being honored were Donnie Bell, Carrie Camfield, Cathren Cantrell, Kayla Davlin, Mark Hanson and Sharon Ramaekers, to name a few from our area. Ron Mills, son of Nynvia Mills (Mrs. Mills is a third grade teacher at Gene Howe), is the President of the National Junior Honor Society. We are real proud of all these young people.

"CARING 'N SHARING" was the theme of the recent PTA Fall Seminar sponsored by District 8. Representing Gene Howe were Gwyn Sellers, Glenna Schmidt, Ernestine Harp, Doris Nash and Troyce Mulherin. Miss Harriet Griffin of Fort Worth, the state PTA representative, spoke on "Now Roles in the PTA." Group buzz session emphasizing "Caring 'n Sharing" comprised the second session of this seminar.

SHANNON EDWARDS, SON of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards, celebrated his ninth birthday with a miniature golf party. Tim and Steve Stokes,

Kelly Mayfield and David Bromley helped with the fun making and birthday cake eating. Many more happy to you, Shannon.

THE MEMBERS OF the Town and Country Home Demonstration Club were treated to a demonstration of "rub outs" at their recent meeting at the Hobby House. They also picked up some useful information on new methods of refinishing old furniture and were introduced to some new Christmas gifts ideas. Following the meeting, the group took advantage of the open house sponsored by Amarillo furniture stores, and enjoyed touring the stores and studying the room settings. The next meeting of this club will be at ten o'clock, Wednesday, October 25. Plans at this time are to tour some junk (should we say, antique, or second-hand furniture?) stores. Anyway, you get the general idea of what they have in mind to do, and if interested in joining in on this excursion, feel free to call Melvena Brown or Sarah Edwards for details.

THE FIFTH GRADE football team coached by Mr. Paris and Mr. Phipps played against Wolflin this past week. Their next and last game of the season will be played this Sunday at 3:30 at Crockett school in Amarillo. A family picnic will be had following the game. The place for the picnic will be announced at the game, so make a picnic basket and join in for this observance of the close of the season.

PAM AND RYAN Holt, Traci Betty, Greg Coronado and Don Meier helped John Hicks celebrate his reaching the ripe old age of six. John is the son of the Phyllis and Johnny Hicks. Carla Schmidt and Shiela Hicks introduced the youngsters to party games. Unusual favors were matchbox constructions kits—same putting young minds and hands to work. Young fun, too.

BLUE AND WHITE was the color scheme of the bridal shower recently held honoring Loy Bell, bride to be of Mr. Tom Gerald. Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Juanita Evans, Mrs. Helen Cobb, Mrs. Mary Ann Kramer, Mrs. Johnice Bass, Mrs. Linda Oldham and Mrs. Virginia Winters. A blue and white carnation centerpiece enhanced the blue cloth, with overcloth of lace, on the serving table. This bride and groom will be enjoying some unusual and surprising meals, having received a box of unlabeled canned food, from the Wilshire Street gang. Approximately thirty people attended the shower. The wedding date is set for November 2, at two o'clock at the Polk Street Methodist Church. Best wishes for this young couple.

THIS FRIDAY NIGHT, October 20, will be the eeeeeek opening night for the Haunted House sponsored by the band parents in Canyon. The creaking doors will open at seven o'clock, and for fifty cents, you can treat the ol' nerves to a good workout. If the legs and/or courage give out Friday, the ghouls will be doing their thing Saturday night, too.

FAIR WARNING—NOVEMBER 3 is a school holiday. THANKS FOR THE use of the hall and the calls. Troyce. 352-6053

Troop 8 in the Gene Howe area is proud of Ronda Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olen G. Ray, who has earned 39 badges out of a possible 47 total. (See Gene Howe column.)

Deposits In Banks Here On Increase, Call Shows

Deposits on hand and loans made by Canyon banks are up considerably from a year ago, with respective totals hitting $29,307,706 and $18,656,755.

The figures were released in response to a federal regulatory bank call issued last week.

Canyon's First National Bank figures show an increase in deposits up from $19,243,323 on Sept. 30, 1971, to $23,770,210 at the present. That bank's loan figure is up from $13,136,019 on that date a year ago to the present $14,851,392.

At West Texas State Bank, a deposit increase from $3,917,134 to $5,537,496 and a loan increase from $3,279,882 to $3,805,363 was recorded during the same time period.

At the First National Bank of Canyon, the Tuesday call date saw the facility's deposits at an all time record high, the $23.7

million topping any deposit figure in the institution's history. Of the eight banks in the Canyon-Amarillo communities, only one, North State Bank of Amarillo, showed a lower deposit figure than recorded on a recent previous call date.

All other area banks showed increases with no one able to definitely put a finger on the reason for the upswings.

World Finals At Dragway Sat., Sunday

A premium field of cars and drivers is assured as entries continue to mount for this weekend's world finals of drag racing slated for Amarillo Dragway in north Randall County.

Sanctioned and produced by the National Hot Rod Association, the $220,000 classic will decide 1972 world titles in seven separate eliminator categories and is open only to those drivers who have earned qualifying points during the recently-concluded NHRA World Championship Series of 35 races across the U.S. and Canada.

Among the sport's super stars who filed early entries was two-time National champion Ed McCulloch of Clovis, Calif., who will be shooting for the World Funny Car crown at Amarillo.

McCulloch's Chrysler-powered Demon is the heavy favorite based upon the fantastic winning streak the veteran speedster has enjoyed thus far this season. In addition to winning the coveted national crown for the second time this year, the former Oregonian has racked up three other major NHRA victories and scored one runner-up win for an all-time record.

grants-in-aid to athletes, expected to pass at the N.C.A.A. meeting in January, will bring schools like Oklahoma, Nebraska and Texas down to our recruitment level," he said.

Along the same lines, Holmes claimed that most of the big power schools are operating their athletic programs well beyond the perspective of their educational programs. "They will have to cut back eventually," he claimed.

Getting away from football, Holmes told newsmen that WTSU had not yet "been caught up in MVC basketball madness." He said players, coaches and fans would become much more excited with conference basketball "once you start fighting for the championship."

The MVC has long been noted for its prowess in the game of basketball, fielding such powers as Louisville, St. Louis, Drake and Bradley Universities.

Holmes, a former college baseball coach, said it was hoped that all conference schools would qualify as first division athletic institutions by taking part in the eight sports as required by the N.C.A.A. Only New Mexico State and Drake now meet the requirements, the commissioner said. He said he would like to see other member schools reinstate

Meals On Wheels Meets Sunday

Canyon Meals on Wheels, Inc., will take up the essential business of approving by-laws, voting on officers, and approving their board of directors when they meet next Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. in the United Methodist Church.

Organizers of the group urge all interested representatives of church and civic groups as well as individuals to attend the meeting.

The five directors to be presented for approval at that time will be Mrs. Betty Holcomb, Dr. Ples Harper, Dr. David Miller, Mrs. Joan Blake, and the Rev. J. Frank Peery.

The slate of officers will be announced at the meeting. To date, activities have been directed by coordinators consisting of Mrs. Betty Markham, Mrs. Peggy Smallwood, and Mrs. Kate Gamble.

Interviews with 60 referrals have now been completed, according to spokesman Mrs. Jane Stephens. In view of the large number of referrals, the group now hopes to begin with eight or ten recipients, rather than the originally planned number of six.

A need still exists for volunteer drivers to deliver the meals. Mrs. Margaret Ann Underwood has called a meeting of all volunteer drivers or those interested in volunteering for 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, Oct. 25, in the fellowship hall of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Underwood has stated that volunteer drivers will be asked to deliver only one meal a week. For further information, she may be contacted at 655-9444.

West Texas State will carry a 3-2 season mark into the non-conference contest. The Buffaloes have beaten Colorado State, 41-14; Lamar University, 35-12; and New Mexico State, but have fallen to Drake, 40-12; and Southern Mississippi, 14-7.

College Choir Sings Tonight

The sixty-voice choir from the Apostolic Faith Bible College at Baxter Springs, Kans., will perform this evening at 7:30 at Faith Chapel, located in the 2700 block of 4th Ave. The Rev. Ted Barker, director of choral music at the college, will direct the choir.

The Rev. Jack Cornell has extended an invitation to the public to hear the choir at no charge. A free-will offering will be taken.

The choir is presently touring the Panhandle, Oklahoma, the Houston area, and Alabama. They will make an I.P. record during their concert engagement in Houston.

Raillard Heads Institute Panel

Raymond Raillard, executive vice-president of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation and manager of the "Texas" production, is attending the Institute of Outdoor Drama in Chapel Hill, N.C. this week.

Raillard will be a featured participant in the program, heading a panel on box office procedures. He will discuss the "Texas" practice of making reservations on credit, a procedure rarely used by outdoor dramatic productions.

Accompanying the "Texas" manager on the trip was his wife, Mrs. Raillard. They left Monday and will return Friday, stopping at gift and novelty shops en route home to look over possible new items for the "Texas" souvenir shop.

JV's Ease By Lefors Team

The Canyon High junior varsity slipped by Lefors 15-14 in action last Thursday and face an open date this afternoon.

The Junior Eagles scored in the second and fourth quarters with a run by Adrian Foil in the final period for two points making the game difference.

Foil scored in the second quarter on an 80-yard run for the first JV score and Dennis Collier's kick made it 7-0.

The Lefors team rebounded in the fourth quarter with a score and then ran the extra point try to make the score 8-7.

Canyon's Jerry Collins scored again for Canyon in the fourth stanza on an 8-yard run and Foil made the two point conversion on a run, making the score 15-8.

With just a minute to go in the play, Lefors made their final score and an extra point pass attempt failed to give the JV team from Canyon their win.

The JVs voted Steve Brandt outstanding offensive lineman and Collins outstanding offensive back. Dennis Collier was named outstanding defensive lineman and Andy Grimes took home outstanding defensive back honors.

Umbarger 4-H Airs Projects

The Umbarger 4-H Club held their regular meeting Monday night, Oct. 16 at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Donna Hartman, president, conducted the meeting.

Sharon Ramaekers opened the meeting with a prayer and song. Special guest was Mrs. Anton Hollenstein, who talked on projects members could take up for the year.

In the business meeting, membership of the club was announced as numbering 35. Committees were appointed as follows: finance, Mr. and Mrs. Batenhorst, co-chairmen, Gerald Wilhelm, Duayne Hartman, and Mary Ann Wiek; program and recreation, Mr. and Mrs. Suthers, co-chairmen, Brenda Batenhorst, Bernie Wiek, Larry Hartman, Allen Adams, and Bryan Friemel.

Mrs. Suthers led the group in several games. Refreshments were served to members and ten guests by Brenda and Roger Batenhorst.

The next regular meeting will be Nov. 20 in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

FBI sources told The News the FHA is having trouble with no-recourse loans nationwide.

A News investigation into the partnership involved in the construction two years ago of The Canyon Creek Apartments here resulted in the discovery of the no-recourse law.

The FBI is currently investigating the partnership which owns the 100-unit apartment complex here.

A week ago, several owners told Canyon apartment house owners, they were facing foreclosure due to economic difficulties in running the apartment house.

The owners had asked West Texas State University to assume the $1.2 million FHA-insured loan to use the apartments for married student and faculty housing. The university declined to accept the offer.

orphanage.

The First Baptist Church in Canyon sent several boxes of goods to the orphanage last spring, and she said this is an extension of that effort.

Items needed by the orphanage include:

Clothing—girls up to size 14 and boys up to size 18.

Baby things—clothing, blankets, diapers, powder, pins, shoes, socks, plastic pants, vaseline, bottles, lotion, oil and Q-tips.

Linen—twin sheets, pillows, mattress pads and lightweight blankets.

Toilet articles—tooth brushes, tooth paste, shampoo, combs, brushes, wash cloths, hand towels, bath towels and small mirrors.

Mrs. Whitley said donations may be brought to the front foyer of the junior high school.

"Under these situations there would be a mandatory death sentence," Dowlen said, "unless the jury recommended leniency in which case the sentence would be life imprisonment."

In other words, persons convicted of murder under one of the provisions outlined above would not be eligible for a 10-year sentence, a 20-year sentence, a 100-year sentence or probation.

Dowlen said the bill complies with recent U.S. Supreme Court decisions concerning the death penalty.

Mrs. Frank Kimbrough, center, accepted a plaque Saturday night preceding the West Texas State University football game in commemoration of the dedication of Buffalo Bowl as Kimbrough Memorial Stadium. The dedication was in honor of her late husband, who was athletic director and coach at WTSU for many years.

ADPI's Gather For Two Events

Alpha Delta Pi alumnae have gathered for two recent events — one, a surprise "come as you are" breakfast, and the other, their regular business meeting.

The "come as you are" breakfast was given at 7:30 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 7, in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Olsen, 506 Taylor Lane, for alumnae and pledges. Hostesses to the 35 members present were Mrs. Harriet Brandon, Mrs. Katie Chitwood, and Mrs. Marita Crowder.

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 10, a regular business meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Ronald Taylor, 1409 Hillcrest, with 15 members present. Plans were made to sponsor a cake walk in the Canyon Halloween Carnival, and Mrs. Thomas Cannon was elected reporter-historian to replace Mrs. Willis Harrison.

The sorority's next scheduled event is a coffee on Nov. 14 in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Olson.

Student Hurt In Accident

A sophomore student at West Texas State University was injured Monday night when her hand was caught in a dumbwaiter in the east cafeteria on campus.

Jane A. Wright of Perryton was treated at Neblett Hospital and released.

Fire Capt. Joe Rice, who along with other firemen worked more than an hour to free the girl's arm from the machine, said Miss Wright did not appear seriously injured.

THANK YOU FOR the calls this week.

Mary Jo

William A. Moore of the speech department at West Texas State University was honored Saturday by West Texas State Ex-Students, Inc., with a president's special award. Also honored at the luncheon was Mrs. Lucille Nance Jones.

Halloween Plans Set

The members of Alpha Theta Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Steve Hines, 1008 5th St., Monday evening, with Mrs. Ray Grimes, president, presiding. Mrs. Paul Stevenson and Mrs. Dickey Maxwell were welcomed as new pledges.

Ways and Means Chairman, Mrs. Mike Lewis, gave plans for a booth at the Halloween Carnival. As social chairman, Mrs. Lewis also announced a masquerade dance to be held October 27, for members and their husbands in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, 2516 11th Ave.

Mrs. Lewis presented a program, "Her Crowning Glory." She told of hairstyling as far back as the Stone Age, showing pictures of various hairstyles down through history. Mrs. Lewis gave a wig-styling demonstration and informed the members of what factors to look for in purchasing hairpieces.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Kenny Conway, Mrs. Ray Grimes, Mrs. James Hill, Mrs. Hines, Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. Mike Lewis, Mrs. Herbert Kuhlman, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Johnny Robinson, and Mrs. Stevenson.

You Can Be A Distributor

One of the world's leading producers of aluminum, who is now marketing a complete line of products to chain supermarkets, discount stores, and other national chain accounts, wishes to expand their distribution in your area. The search is on for a highly qualified individual to control distribution to independent supermarkets and drug, hardware, and variety merchandisers locally. If you are responsible, of good character, and eager to make money in a business of your own, you could be a local distributor. Previous experience is not necessary, we will train you to be successful. You can start on a limited basis for as little as $2995.00 and continue your present job. However, the distributor selected must be ambitious and should plan on earning his living from this business as soon as possible. For more information and to arrange for a personal interview, call Mr. Stevens, collect: (314) 731-2600 ADLER INDUSTRIES, INC. 320 Brookes Drive, Hazelwood, Mo. 63042

Sherman Acres News Joneses Attend Dallas Meeting

By MARY JO GRIFFIN

A HAPPY WEEK to you all on this third week of October and the ninth week of school. Time is really getting by fast! Haven't learned a terrible lot this week, but will pass on these few items.

MR. AND MRS. Sherman Jones and Lee Don were in the Dallas-Fort Worth area recently. They attended the district meeting of the Indoor Sports Club in Denton and visited with several relatives. Sherman attended the Cowboy football game in Dallas. Their daughter and her husband Marsha and Tommy Goodwin are guests in their home this week.

GEORGE AND PEGGY White's little Todd is one year old today. Happy birthday Todd, and make that one candle and wish a good one.

GUESTS LAST WEEK in the home of Herb and Betty Hall and family were Herb's parents Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hall and an aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reed all of Vernon.

The Reeds are former residents of Amarillo and spent some time visiting with friends and relatives there. Also Sunday night the Halls were hosts to the Home Builders Sunday School Class of the Amarillo Bible Church.

Twenty guests attended and they elected class officers and enjoyed visiting and refreshments.

THE HAUNTED HOUSE will be opening Friday night in the old First National Bank Building and is being sponsored by the Band Parents organization. Mrs. Verona Collier is chairman and the price of admission is 50 cents. There will be eight rooms of the very unexpected! Each room has its own ghosts and ghouls. Guides will be eager to escort the not-so-brave. So, be you nine or 90 (or any other age) come and enjoy it. The dates for this Haunted House to be open are tomorrow and Saturday, next week on Thursday, Friday and Saturday and the next week on Monday and Tuesday which is Halloween. The opening hour will be at 7:00 each day listed. Also you will see the concession stand sponsored by the choirs in the building too. This is done by all bands in the Canyon school district and the money raised will benefit the bands in the purchase of instruments, music and teaching aids needed by the directors and students.

ALSO HEARD SUCH nice comments on the spaghetti supper last Friday night. The decorations on the patriotic theme were fantastic and it was so like a festive banquet. The sponsors were very happy with the success of the evening.

BRENDA HALL AND Anita Boss will be celebrating birthdays Saturday, Oct. 21. A very happy day and a good year ahead to both girls.

RECENT GUESTS IN the home of Mr. and Mrs. Odie Houk and family were Freida's mother Mrs. Norman Lane, an aunt Mrs. Ethel Shults and her grandfather Mr. Jake Ladyman who were on a return trip from California to their homes in Vernon. They got together and made pictures and celebrated having five generations in the family. The five being Mr. Ladyman, Mrs. Lane, Frieda Houk, Randy Houk and the baby, Randy Dean Houk. This baby is also a member of five generations in another direction of the family.

THERE IS AN urgent need for black plastic material to cover windows with. If you have some and would like to see it in the Haunted House call Mariellen Garner at 655-2495 and they will be very grateful for it.

Winning Film Due Showing

"David and Lisa," Frank and Eleanor Perry's highly acclaimed film of the delicate relationship between two emotionally disturbed teenagers, will be presented Wednesday at West Texas State University.

The film, an offering of the Student Activities Council series, will be shown at 11:30 a.m. in the Activities Center ballroom. Admission is 75 cents.

"David and Lisa" focuses on the encounter of two sensitive personalities. David, who lives in fear of being touched, feels himself "touched" by the isolation of Lisa, a schizophrenic.

Discovering that one of Lisa's two identities is able to communicate in nonsense rhyme, David tries to overcome his rejection of emotional contact through his efforts to reach out to Lisa's lost self.

The film won three major awards at the Venice and San Francisco film festivals, received two Academy Award nominations, and appeared on the New York Film Critics 10 best list of 1962.

Gene Howe Class In Columbus Skit

The sixth grade class of Mrs. Marion Schoemaker at Gene Howe Elementary School Thursday morning presented a Columbus Day program to the members of other sixth grade classes.

Students of the class wrote the parts and designed and made their own costumes. The project involved the entire class, with more than 25 students taking part.

The story covered the history of Christopher Columbus, the Italian seaman and explorer credited with discovering America.

Two performances were held in the school's all purpose room.

Mrs. Shoemaker's 6th grade home room at Gene Howe presented a play for the student body on Columbus Day, Oct. 12. Three of the characters are pictured here: Terry Rudd as Columbus, Dan Whipple as King Ferdinand, and Lisa Erwin as Queen Isabella.

Now in Canyon!

Fresh at your grocer's today.

Over 40 Entered In Steer Roping--Wranglers Score

By MARY NEAL HENRY

WELCOME TO THE columnist's life. Skip Skip Simons will be writing now for the Happy paper since Judy has "gone to work". . . salaried, that is. Anna Bee, I had to laugh at the way you expressed it, because it is a joke when someone asks a homemaker and mother, wife, housekeeper, cook, maid, valet, chauffeur, den mother, civic worker, errand boy, truck driver, bookkeeper, interior decorator, painter, gardener, seamstress, hired hand, etc., "Do you work?" Of course, they mean, "Are you employed for a salary?" None of the aforementioned pays! That is why Judy went to work. HA!

There is no telling what that Skip will come up with. She writes poetry with no effort and can do most anything.

THE HAPPY RODEO Association's Wesley — Sims Memorial Roping is this weekend. Saturday, around forty top calf ropers will compete for several hundred dollars prize money. Only the top ten will rope a fourth head of stock. Happy's own Dick Zachry won this event last year. Another saddle will be presented to the winner this year.

SATURDAY EVENING THERE will be a dance at the Jaycee Hall but it will be sponsored by the Happy Rodeo Association as it has been in all the past years. I got quite a lecture on that "miscue." Don't you know the president's wife "don't know nothing?"

SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT 2:00, the steer roping will begin. About forty top steer ropers will trip three steers and the ten with the best times will be given that fourth head of stock to win around $10,000 in prize money and a trophy saddle. Shoat Webster won this event last year. You all come. . . to Happy Rodeo Arena, Oct. 21, and 22 at 2 p.m. You'll have to be there even earlier than that if you want to be there for the introduction of ropers.

MRS. GRAHAM PURCELL'S coffee is today at Mrs. Foster Harman's, 602 Main in Happy. Come and coffee between 2:30 and 5 p.m.

GAY FELLERS, SINCE we are friends, and I drank a Republican coke, you better come by and drink a cup of Democratic coffee.

ELZO GUEST WAS operated on in Neblett Hospital Wednesday of last week. The operation was a hernia repair and Elzo is home now and recuperating nicely.

LENA AND BABE Walberg and their good friends, Speck and Susie Aikman of Olton, left last Friday to visit Nancy and Melvin Smith. They took in the big game at Dallas on Saturday — not O.U. and Texas — Robin's junior high game.

MARY JANE MILLER and her mother, Mrs. Ola Smythe, flew to Tampa, Fla., last Thursday. Mrs. Smythe stayed in Florida to visit relatives and Mary Jane returned on Monday.

JESSIE C. LANE entered St. Anthony's Hospital for tests last Wednesday and Thursday. She is at home again now, but still not active.

STEVE ALTMAN, I apologize! Steve won second and a certificate in the ten-year-old division of the Regional Punt, Pass and Kick in Amarillo. Two lines were participating at the same time and I wasn't on Steve's line. Belated

Congratulations, Steve! MARY AND EDDIE Womack have been to Nacogdoches visiting the David Womacks.

LINDA SWANSON WORKED in Mary's place while she was visiting.

WYLIE QUATTLEBAUM OF the Ceta Glen Canyon recently had a family reunion. Six sisters and two brothers attended — making the family ALL present. (Isn't that marvelous. We can't even get four together.) The group included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ford; Mrs. Ann Pullig and her daughter and a son, Monte of Littlefield; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barten; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Heckrodt; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Quattlebaum and Floyd Quattlebaum of Elk City, Okla.; Mrs. Paul W. Abell of Woodland Hills, Calif.; Mrs. Helen Wright of Santa Maria, Calif.; Mrs. Wayne Land, Dexter, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Quattlebaum and daughters, Cindy and Kay of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Owen Harris of Leedey, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quattlebaum of Atlanta, Ga.; and son, Bland of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Nolan

Harris of Borger; and of course, Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Quattlebaum. I visited Mrs. Quattlebaum last spring during the contest and they have a lovely new home in the canyon. With the natural landscaping, it is beautiful.

WRANGLERS FINALLY SCORED. Eddie Joe Pearson ran a kick-off back to score and Donnie Oler threw an outstanding block (downing two men) to help make that score possible. We lost to River Road 28 to 6, but our feelings were all soothed anyway.

COWBOYS HAD AN open date on Friday. BOYS AND DADS that spent the night at the Baptist encampment at Floydada last Friday night were Brother Paul Heil and his Shawn; Duane Walker and his Chuck, Rod, and David; Dick Railsback and his Scott; Wayne Cope and his Bill; Pete Odom and his Kevin and Kyle; Ed Wright and his Vint Bonner, Richard Hampton and his Gregg; Mark, Tackitt, Raphe Shipman, Roy Dee Thompson, Darren Johnson, Monty Johnson, and David Martin Lane. They climbed that hill they had in mind. . . and several other things, I think. JUDY SHIPMAN WAS honored with a coffee in the home of Barbara Danner, Sunnyhill Home Demonstration Club President, last Friday morning. Judy will be unable to be a club member because she will be employed by the First State Bank. The club presented Judy a roadrunner pen and a necklace for her many years of service and loyalty to the club. Judy was serving as Council Delegate, but we'll have to elect another at the next meeting. Enjoying the morning were Lou Dougherty, Shirley Williams, Phyllis Bryan, Gwynn Tueck and Melissa, Sharon McCarley and Bill, Jo Hand, Helen Bryan and Rowdy, Maurine Allison and Barbara and Judy.

DONNA ANN MAGNESS was honored with a lingerie shower on Friday evening at Kay Venhaus' home. Susan Rahlfs, Judy Shipman, Della Venhaus, and Dottie Foster helped as hostesses. Donna looked very happy indeed in her rust pant suit and shoes of matching hue. And received the most luxurious "stuff" I've seen in many a moon. Mary Ann, her Mom, was there, and Debbie, her lil' sis, Sweetie Johnson, and grandmothers, Leona McFarland and Clara Magness, more kin' folks, Helen McFarland, Kippa McFarland, Zane Carter, and then Jeanne Johnson (well, that will be "kin") and Sandra Maynard, Kay Penn, Jeannie Todd and her son, Tanya McCarley and Cory Neil, Ann Payne, Phyllis Bradley, and myself and the hostesses. They served us that good banana punch and jelly roll cake, mints and nuts. I remember some that sent gifts, like Della Henry, Donna Bryan and Sandy Morgan.

DONNA ANN AND Randy Johnson were married on Saturday afternoon in Canyon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conway Kuykendall. They were going to be married in Canyon and so Joanna offered her home, very nice gesture. It was a family affair, Don, Mary Ann and Debra Magness, Cone and Sweetie Johnson, Ronnie and Jeanne Johnson and Susan and Lloyd Rahlfs. They served wedding cake and punch to the wedding party. They were married by Brother Finley. (And he'd taught Don at WT). They'll have a wedding picture in the paper soon. Watch for it in a Sunday edition.

CHERYL SCHAEFFER WAS honored with a bridal shower at Fellowship Baptist Hall on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 14, from 3 to 5 p.m. Colleen Schaeffer was ill and so Mrs. Melton Schaeffer stood in the receiving line with Cheryl, and her future mother-in-law, Mrs. LeRoy Morris of Dumas. Mildred Devin welcomed guests also. They were registered by Sandy DuBois and Rita Williams, Mrs. Russell Kruger, Janice and Pam pman, and Kathy Allen served punch and cake from a table of white centered with a centerpiece of orchids and purples. Cheryl Schaeffer wore a floor length print dress with white collar and cuffs and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Morris wore a floor-length ensemble of pinks. They both looked lovely. Hostesses for the occasion were: Mesdames Clayton Devin, Jerral Mayes, Bill Allen, Frank Briscoe, Charles Wilson, O. H. Rahlfs, Jack Sutton, Foy Moudy, Bill Dugan and Cindy, Foster Harman, Lena Belle Cabe, Clifford Stevens, George Venhaus, Evans Holland, Nathan Harvey, Roman Weavers, Alvin Moudy, Morlan McCanigal, Bill Hinton, Tom Henry, Dean Todd, Fay Hand, W. T. Robinson, Robert Williams, Si Elliott, Carl Bryan, Bruce Fields, John Butlers, Babe Walberg, Adrian Bates, and Peggy, Dale Whitlow, Johnny Parker, Vivian Wesley, N. F. Johnson, Bob Lester Bryan, Ed Flaherty, Jack Middleton, Danny White, Carol Sims, and George Woods.

DELORES ALLEN AND her Kathy and Dean were in Happy Saturday afternoon. Delores helped with Cheryl's shower. Kathy is also wearing an engagement ring, but they haven't set the date. It is pretty, Kathy!

WICKEY CULP, BILLY Jackson, Stuart Tackitt, Wendy Sims, and Lee Moore went to the National F. F. A. Convention in Kansas City this week. They flew. They took in the fat stock show and Wickey received his American Star Farmer Award.

EIGHTH GRADE CLASS sponsored by Sherry Walker, Billie Pearson, Louise and George White went skating on their class party Friday evening.

FAYE HAND DROVE the church bus to the Acteens skating party on Saturday night. This group was sponsored by Faye and Jo Hand and Judy Shipman. Attending were Star Turner, Brenda Penn, Nancy Woods, Pearl Perez, Denise Cope, Bobbyetta Butler, Colette McCarley, Connie Hand, Valerie Tipps, Kim McCaslin, Becky Stubblefield, Bonnie Brisco, Patricia Geauthreaux, Nancy Ruth White and Mandi and Raphe Shipman. I heard about one "wreck" on skates.

DELTA ROBERTS, WHO was crowned Homecoming Queen at West Texas last Friday night, is Bud and Cora Bell Roberts' younger daughter. We were most pleased with the judges' choice.

ALLENE LITTLEFIELD WAS surprised with a birthday party on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Minnie Via, Louise Stubblefield, Alice Penn, Romona Weavers, Josephine Garcia, Irene Uselding, Johnny McCarley, Ruth Aikens, Murlie White, and Roberta Cox took gifts and birthday cake and a good time.

ROBERTA AND BUD Cox were in Amarillo on Sunday helping Wilma Berry celebrate her birthday.

BILLY K. ODOM has been promoted to Lieutenant in the Police Force and has been transferred from Willits to Fort Bragg, Calif. Congratulations, Billy K. and Ruth Alice!

ANNIE LEMMONS VISITED in Happy with Roberta Cox on Saturday afternoon.

ALDEN MANN IS still in Temple after getting a new steel knee and plastic knee cap. He has suffered great discomfort and will appreciate your remembering him. Jan and Jack Ratjen of Mansfield, Texas, have been to Temple to visit with Ruth and Alden.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HAD a party Saturday afternoon at the West Texas Activity Center and supper at Sutphens. La Venna Jackson, La Nelle Todd, Rosanell Payne, and Sandy Morgan sponsored this party.

BILLY JACKSON SPENT Thursday evening in the home of his uncle, Jim Steadman, in Overland Park, which is a suburb of Kansas City. (This was during the F.F.A. Convention.) AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY met recently in the Hospitality Room of the First State Bank. They planned a bake sale to be held Oct. 28 beginning at 9:30. This will help finance their Girls' State Program.

AN AMERICANISM PROGRAM will be sponsored at the school on Friday, Nov. 10. Poppies will also be sold. La Venna Jackson is chairman of this.

BOXES WILL BE placed in local business for collection of gifts for the Veterans to give to loved ones at Christmas. Leola Sexton is chairman of this project.

THE NEXT ZONE meeting will be in Hart. Jack Flynt is the new zone commander.

MAURINE ALLISON WAS appointed parliamentarian. MARY ANN SIMS is a new junior member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

PRESENT AT THIS meeting were Leola Sexton, Minnie Via, Clois Greenfield, Stone Cope, Ora Mary Sims, LaVenna Jackson, Lola Bowe, Lena Ponder, Patriel Parker, and Maurine Allison.

LA VENNA JACKSON took Ronnie Jackson, Gordon

3rd Graders Hold Poster Contest

The students of Mrs. Sue Hooper's third grade class at Rex Reeves Elementary School, in cooperation with the band parent's Haunted House venture, this week conducted a "scary poster" contest.

Twenty four members of the class entered 48 posters which, according to the judges, were too good to single out just one winner, resulting in the naming of four first place ties.

The winners were Blair Garner, Trent Miller, Lori Fischbacher and Ricky Valdez.

Judges for the contest were J. W. King, high school band director, and Gary Laramore, director of the junior high band, and Mrs. Laramore.

Each winner was presented two tickets to the Haunted House located on the downtown square, and a family ticket was given to Mrs. Hooper for her cooperation. Many of the posters will be on display throughout the city, one spokesman said.

Hawthorne, Michael Schoenenberger, Lonnie Tackitt, Steve Crabtree, Andy Butler and Genie Jackson skating on Saturday night. They stopped at Mr. Burger in Canyon on the way home.

HERE IS A news item from a Denver newspaper a few years ago that was handed me by a friend, a friend of both mine and Dr. Robinson's. I hope he gets a chuckle out of it.

"DR. GLEN ROBINSON, Mayor of Happy, Texas, with Mrs. Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson went to the Mile High Kennel Club Saturday night. It was Doc-His-Honor-the Mayor Robinson's first experience at a pari-mutual gambling setup, and he approached the bewildering operation with caution.

"HE PLACED WHAT he thought was a normal, modest $2 wager at a window where the man explained to him that you must bet on two dogs at once. This seemed odd to Doc, who only wanted to bet on one dog, but he went along with it.

"WHAT HE BOUGHT, all unknowing, was a quinea. And the hounds he picked at random, by number, paid him $149.60.

"WHICH IS A lovely way to go to the dogs for the first (or any other) time, hey, Doc?"

BEFORE SCHOOL WEDNESDAY night, I had a most pleasant surprise, Jim and

Eddie Cope and "our" Joda and Jeffna dropped by. Joda kept telling them all the way out here, that they weren't coming to my house, but they made it and I believe she was almost as surprised to see me as I was to see her. Tom summed it up well when he said, "Never thought I'd miss those kids so much." Jim and Eddie are living in a new 14 x 72 foot trailer home in Floydada now. You know that isn't too far to run see them, is it?

VIOLA BUCHANAN, WORTHY Matron of Happy Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, Willie Butler, Ruth Sims, Evelyn Dowd, Gladys Haley, Evelyn Shipman and myself are among the Happy Eastern Stars attending Grand Chapter in Fort Worth this week. Election is Thursday morning and there're old friends to greet and new ones to meet. Willie Butler left last Saturday and traveled with Loretta Rhoderick of Plainview. Viola Buchanan, Evelyn Shipman and Gladys Haley left Sunday. Ruth Sims, Evelyn David and I couldn't get off until Wednesday. . . in time to vote Thursday morning. Everyone will be on their way home Friday.

WE'LL BE BACK in time for the Rainbow Girls' hamburger supper on Friday night, Oct. 20. They begin serving at 5 and serve during and after the ball game, so get your ticket for a hamburger, french fries, and drink and you can also buy homemade pie, if you wish. This is the night we play Wilson, Oct. 20. See you at the school cafeteria!

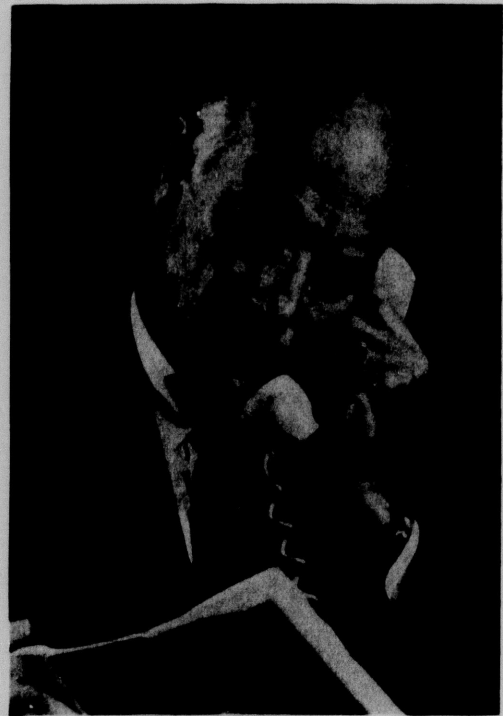

See ya! Mary Neal

HOUSE SPEAKER CARL ALBERT SAYS

"When Graham Purcell talks, Congress listens"

In Washington, Graham Purcell can get things done for our district because he is respected as—

- A seasoned national legislator of 11 years' experience.
- The author of 26 public laws.
- The Chairman of the House Subcommittee on Livestock & Grains.
- The man in position to be next Chairman of the full House Agriculture Committee.
- A Native Texan, experienced lawyer, former judge and church lay leader.

Fraud Squad Needed?

There may not be a "fraud squad" to police Randall County's precinct polling places during the November general election, but County Clerk LeRoy Hutton says he'll be watching things closely to ensure a fair election here.

Hutton admits the potential for election tampering exists in the county and within its system of punch-card voting.

But, he says a corresponding ballot security system insures election equity.

Hutton returned recently from a weekend workshop on ballot security in Austin, a workshop called by the Republican Party.

During the workshop, Hutton explained to other county clerks Randall County's system for dealing with the possibility of election fraud in the punch-card process.

"Ballot security for punch-card voting is different from that for paper ballots," Hutton said after returning, "because they're all going through the computer."

The Republicans, he said, "want to make sure these computers are counting the ballots right."

And, how does Randall County assure that the computer at West Texas State University is counting the ballots correctly?

By testing. Hutton said one public test is required by law.

"A public notice of the test has to be in the newspaper 48 hours before the test," he said, "and the public is allowed to witness the test."

Even though the state requires one test, Hutton makes two tests just to insure everything's right.

Prior to the public test, he and the operators at the WTSU computer center hold a mock election, using the actual election program and simulated ballots.

"Then, we take everything we used and lock it up and then do the official test," Hutton said.

Even so, Hutton says there's still a chance for election tampering, if not at the computer center, within the precincts themselves.

"In any election, it's the people who are the problem," he said. "Voting machines, computers or paper ballots can all be manipulated by people. I've never seen a machine of any type that was dishonest."

To check any possibility of election fraud, Hutton said Randall County provides at each precinct members of each party represented on the ballot.

And, Hutton insures that both Republicans and Democrats are among the personnel working in election central at the computer center.

Hutton said he's certain Randall County has never had any problem with election fraud.

But, if voters felt there was a problem, Texas law provides a recourse.

"In punch-card voting, it just takes one candidate or 25 voters to challenge the whole system," he said. "When you run punch-card voting in Texas, you run it like every box was going to district court. So, really this is another safeguard."

Another safeguard, according to Hutton, is the ability inherent in punch cards for audit.

In a voting machine, there is no chance for auditing a vote.

News Brief

Local members of Chi Upsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi attended an area convention last weekend in Borger.

The chapter's scrapbook won second place in the competition there.

Attending from Canyon were Mrs. Jack Sharp, Mrs. Carl Sims, Mrs. Lewel Johnston, Mrs. George Stevens, Mrs. Jerry Costley and Mrs. Meade Michael.

The familiar face of Mrs. Eva Furlow, retiring, was seen Friday for the last time in the kitchen of the Canyon Junior High School cafeteria, where she has prepared meals for 27 years. She and her husband, Dick Furlow, will continue to live at 1218 3rd Ave.

Quaintly Victorian was Mrs. Eddie Poole, modeling this floor-length gown of ivory challis with bodice insets embroidered in tiny rose pattern. Carol Crain, in the background, narrated the fashion show at the Monday night meeting of the Heritage Woman's Club.

WT Director Named To Post In Association

Clifford B. Baker, director of student financial aids at West Texas State University, is the new vice president of the Texas Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators.

He also was reappointed to a two-year term on the executive committee at the association's meeting in San Antonio last week.

The association has a membership of about 240 financial aid directors from Texas higher education institutions.

Melvin Gouge of North Texas State University was elected president.

Jack Jones, associate director of student financial aids at WTSU, also attended the meeting.

Mrs. Jimmy Marrs modeled a pantsuit with the season's tweedy classic look and combination of patterns and textures. The fashions were all presented by De'ons.

Cowboys Ready For Wilson At Home

In what Happy coach Robert Criswell has termed "the biggest game of the year," the Cowboys take on Wilson at home Friday night.

The Cowboys, 4-1 for the season and 4-0 in district play, are currently rated fourth among class B football teams in Texas. The Mustangs from Wilson are defending District 2-B champions and are 4-1 on the season and 3-1 in district play.

According to Criswell, the Mustangs are "big and tough" with all of last year's team back this season. When asked about his team's chances of winning against Wilson, Criswell replied, "We have to."

Wilson was knocked out of state contention last year after winning the district and bi-district, losing in regional play.

Both teams had open dates last weekend and Happy spent the time in keeping sharp and in resting up one injured player and two suffering illness. "Everybody will be ready for Wilson," the coach said earlier this week.

The Cowboy attack, which has been ferocious in most of its games this year, is built around the running of halfbacks Greg Looney and Chris Pearson. The quarterbacking chores are handled by Mark Hargrave with Johnny Payne tending to the fullback slot.

An awesome line, with an average of 200 pounds, has performed near-miracles on both offense and defense. Only six points have been registered against the Cowboys since an opening game loss to Class-A Claude on Sept. 8. Their last opponent, Nazareth, managed six points after three consecutive shutouts had been administered by the Happy defense.

The home game is set for 8 p.m.

Two showings of "Only the Strong," a documentary which pleads for strong military defense, are scheduled this weekend on KGNC-TV in Amarillo.

Donald Todd of Canyon, chairman of the Committee of Concerned Citizens for an Improved Military Defense Against Communism, said the showings will be at 6:30 p.m. Friday and at 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

The film was produced by the Institute for American Strategy.

Heritage Club Views Smart Holiday Modes

A showing of high fashions, ideal for the coming holiday season, was viewed Monday evening at De'ons by Heritage Woman's Club.

Suits with a country classic look, featuring pleated skirts or wide-legged pants, and floor-length gowns with either a sophisticated 30's or quaint Victorian look abounded in the collection. The layered effect in combinations of patterns was modeled frequently.

Narrator for the show was Mrs. Claiborn Crain, who gave predictions for spring apparel as well. Fashion consultants present were Della Henry and Romona Elliott, owners of De'ons. Models included Mmes. Phillip Brown, Eddie Poole, Roy McGregor, Olan Lehman, and Jimmy Marrs.

Following the style show, members met in the home of Mrs. William Ritchie 1200 Creekmere. Hostesses who aided Mrs. Ritchie were Mrs. Pat Shehan and Mrs. Jim Perry. Mrs. Carl Hollabaugh, president, called the meeting to order.

"Carrousel of Stars" will be used as the theme of the talent show presented by the club on February 3. Mrs. Eddie Poole, chairman of the general committee for the show, gave a report on its progress.

Mrs. Ronnie Gordon reminded members of the Federated Council Game Night on December 2. Proceeds go to the Opportunity Plan benefit. Mrs. George Loudder gave a report on the Halloween Carnival that will take place in the Junior Livestock Building on Oct. 31.

The next club meeting will be Nov. 20 in the home of Mrs. Jimmy Marrs.

Special guests were Mesdames

Linda Looney, Ellen Matney, Judy Rutz, Edna English, Carolyn Butler, Joy Davis, Ann Carlisle, Dianne Colgan, and Mrs. Dan Carlton.

Members present were Johnnie Gordon, Janie Loudder, Bonita Oliver, Marieta Crowder, Cleo Brown, Jan Hubbard, Carol Crain, Virginia Cotton, Marion Marrs, Janette Perry, Darlene Hollabaugh, Claudine Lehman, Harriet Brandon, Kathy Poole, Nancy Shehan, Mary Ada Ritchie, and Jill McGregor.

Canyon's Little Miss Will Be Selected

A total of 56 contestants will compete in the Little Miss Canyon Pageant to be staged Saturday evening in the Canyon High School auditorium at 7 p.m. The announcement was made by Virginia Rossiter, chairman, for Xi Kappa Zeta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, sponsoring group.

Miss Rossiter also announced judges for the event will be Loyd Senn, weatherman for KGNC, Channel 4, television station; Bill Sexton, master of ceremonies for "Noon Watch," a KGNC program; Mrs. Margaret Logan of Amarillo; and Mrs. Minnie Leamon, supervisor of the Pivot Point International Hair Design

School in Amarillo.

As in former years, contestants will be judged and awarded first and second prizes of $50 and $25 bonds in three age categories: Littlest Miss, ages 3-5, Little Miss, ages 6-9, and Junior Miss, ages 10-12. The first-place awards are being donated by Cooper's Market, Southwestern Public Service Co., and Parker Cattle Co., and second-place awards are being given by Kreme Kone Drive In, the Tweedle-Dee Children's Shop and Marie's Beauty Salon.

Crowns for the winners are being donated by Gibson's, bracelets for runners-up by LaGrone's, and courtesies for judges by Irwin Greenhouse.

Woody Pond will preside as "Old King Cole" over the pageant, which takes "Little Miss Canyon in Mother Goose Land" as its theme.

Mrs. Donna Wilson will present a choir of 4th, 5th and 6th grade girls between categories.

A rehearsal for contestants will be at 1 p.m., Saturday, in the high school auditorium.

Book Review Set For Oct. 23

The Lou Lester Club, Past from any club member or at the finish the kitchen at the new Matrons' Club of the Order of the Eastern Star, will sponsor a book review by Ann Brown at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 23.

The review of "This Way To Happiness" will be held at the Canyon Community Center.

Tickets, at $1 each, are available

More and more people are wising up to the low cost of electric heat

More SPS customers switched to electric heat last year because they found out, through a free estimate, they could operate an electric heating system for little more than they were spending already. Do you think they made a wise decision? Ask any of them. They're our most convincing salesmen. And, ask us for an operating cost estimate. It's free. It's accurate. It's a real eye-opener.

Palisades Palaver Bus Problems Probed By Reporter

BY VICKI HOOKER

BUS DRIVERS FOR the Palisades route have had problems in the past, and this year's driver, Denny Buck, is no exception. He even admitted that he was warned about this route before he even took the job. And one of the warnings he received was to assign seats — first thing! But having faith in our youngsters, he said no, that assigning seats would be a last resort.

IT SEEMS AS though the Palisades group (probably just a few) decided they couldn't get along with the Rockwell Acres group, which the bus picks up on its way back to Canyon. Palisadesites contended that it was their bus, and as the problem grew the kids from Rockwell Acres tagged our group with the name "bullies."

FINALLY, LAST WEEK Denny assigned seats, and has probably made a few enemies. Or could it be that this is just an excuse to give him more trouble?

NOT ONLY DID he assign seats, but he has also started picking up on the south side only as he leaves the canyon, loading the bus from front to back. This may be a major issue with some of you, but Denny says that it has helped tremendously in evening out the load on the bus, and by not having to make so many unnecessary stops he has saved time as well as wear and tear on the bus. In my opinion, it was a very wise decision, but I have no children riding the bus. Here are

WHAT'S NEW?

What is new at Dan's 5th Ave.? A crochet primer—48 easy-to-do crochet patterns, $1.25; a knit loom to knit without needles, $2.00; a yarn cutter will cut yarn 2 1/2" to 2 3/4", $2.00; broomstick crochet instructions and supplies; large selection of variegated Red Heart 100% wool yarn, .99; adorable alphabet crib cover needle craft kit, size 40 x 60, quilted and ready-sewn with embroidery thread; and macrame wooden beads—many sizes and colors, jute and macrame cord. some of the comments from those who do:

NELL MOORE: "I'm glad the boys catch the bus a little later. It gives them time to eat breakfast." As far as the seating she commented that it was all right with her and the boys. She said, as most parents did, that she expected the boys to behave on the bus, and if assigned seats was the answer, then she was for it.

JUDY WEBB, JOYCE McDonald, and Audrey Mitchell all felt that it was unfair to have the kids ride three to a seat while the Rockwell Acres kids weren't on the bus. They thought they should be allowed to spread out some when room allowed.

MILDRED TURNER SAID her girls were contented with the seating set-up. Mildred commented that she felt it was a good idea, since it gave them a chance to get acquainted with different people.

ARLINE HOOKER BACKED the driver all the way when she said she felt like he should do whatever possible to maintain discipline, even if it meant assigned seats.

"ANYTHING THE BUS driver does, he does in self-defense," was the reaction from Marcella Carlile. She felt the assigned seating was good, even if it was just a safety precaution.

THE ONLY REAL complaints came from the kids, mostly because they are not sitting with whom they want to. But one can't please all of the people all of the time, and one thing can be said for our driver. He does have the upper hand on that bus, and I'm sure none of us would want his job. If those of you who feel the seating situation on the bus is too crowded for too long a time, maybe you should catch the driver some day and tell him. He would probably be glad to work with you anyway possible. As he said, "I'm a totally different person off this bus. I love kids and people and I love working with them. But I won't let them run over me!" And I can't say I blame him!

JO DELLE WALKER returned last Sunday from a three-day trip to Denton where she attended a language workshop of the Montessori system. The workshop was in a private school for two-year-olds through twelfth graders called Selwyn.

JO SAID SHE felt like she really profited from attending the workshop, and that she brought back new and improved methods of presenting the language to her own students, ages four to six at the Wee Wisdom Montessori school in Amarillo. She is one of three teachers in the afternoon session at the school teaching 20 youngsters. What a rewarding job it must be too, to watch all those little ones learning and growing day by day! Anyway, welcome home, Jo. Glad you had a safe and enjoyable trip.

WHILE JO DELLE was away, her son Jamie brought home another first place trophy from the Pit. He won it in the 100 C.C. class, beating his long-time rival from Stinnett, Clyde Barker, who is now a professional. Congratulations, again, Jamie!

HAVEN'T GOTTEN TO talk to her, but we'd like to welcome our new neighbor, Edith Fletcher. She recently moved into a double-wide trailer on the lot at the "Y." Maybe by next week we'll have some information about her.

WE'LL ALSO BE having some new neighbors in the McCarthys place soon. According to Judy Webb, it has sold. More on that later too.

Canyon Entrants Take Art Places

Three Canyon entrants in the Amarillo Fine Arts Assn. Best of the Southwest Art Show held Saturday won honorable mentions in sculpture. They were:

Darold Dean Smith, with his mixed-media entry, "Jonah and the Fish;" Andrew V. Wilks, with his bronze, "Storyteller;" and J. D. Whitaker, with his bronze, "Gridmirari."

A total of 280 entries, including 74 works in sculpture, were entered in the event which also included various methods of painting.

The judging was done by Dale Hamlett, assistant professor of art at Eastern New Mexico State University. The items will be on display at the Western Plaza mall through this Saturday.

demonstration club meeting. Judy Detten, who lives on the Claude Highway, made it known that she wishes to start a 4-H Club in this area for 9-10 year olds. If you have girls that age that may be interested you may give Judy a call at 622-0191.

THIS WEEK WE salute Mildred Turner's squirrels, who keep her busy each morning delivering everything from nuts to Gravy Train to her window sill, where they wait until fed. She says they don't eat from hand yet, but she knows they will be soon!

AT THE BOARD meeting last week we learned that it was Jack Inman who took the time and effort to paint the mailbox rails the same color as the mailboxes. Many thanks to you, Jack, and also to Jim Wright, who painted the northside bridge rails. They really look nice!

Business at the meeting included plans for painting the gate, setting a date for auditing the books, and repairing a 4,000 pound roller bought by the Club. Following the adjournment, a delicious tunnel-o-fudge cake baked by June Hooker and coffee were enjoyed by all, including me! (Pays to sit in on those meetings, you know?)

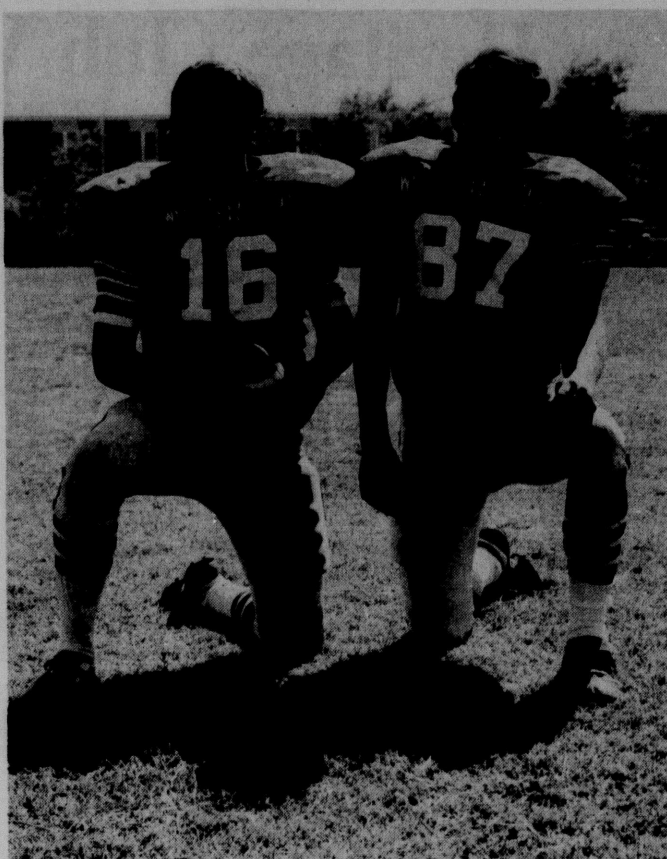

CORRECTION ON LAST week's column concerning the Home Demonstration Club meeting, Next Thursday, Oct. 26 we will have our noon luncheon at Reba Guess'. Everyone should bring a covered dish. Following the luncheon we will have a baby shower for Reba's daughter-in-law, Becky. Be sure to come. Should be a lot of fun!

DON'T FORGET THE Haunted House sponsored by the Canyon Band Parents this weekend! And how could you forget the Festive Foods program next Thursday Oct. 26, at the Farm Bureau in Canyon. There will be two programs, one at 10:00 a.m. and one at 1:30 p.m.

It's always very informative and the samples of holiday foods plus the free cookbooks really make the trip worthwhile.

NO NEWS TIPS this week; therefore no winners! Can you imagine that? I had to do all the calling. Oh, well, just part of the trauma of a reporter's life! (Sorry 'bout that!)

RELATED BIRTHDAY GREETINGS to Phil Boothe on the 18th, and happy birthday to his wife Ellie on the 21st. THE NUMBER IS still 622-1439. I hope some of you call this week. Sure gets quiet 'round here!

Frosh To Meet North Texans

West Texas State University's freshman football team hosts the North Texas State Freshmen at 7:30 p.m. today in Frank Kimbrough Memorial Stadium and coach Ronnie Mankin hopes his young Buffaloes can push their record above the 500 mark.

The young Buffs defeated Cisco Junior College, 17-7, in their opener, but fell to powerful Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College, 21-13, two weeks ago in Miami, Okla.

North Texas State's freshman team has fallen to Monterey Tech, 21-19, and Navarro Junior College, 61-0.

Mankin will probably start Big Spring's Mike Adams at quarterback. Eddie Richardson of San Angelo will start at left halfback. Borger's Johnny Darden will be at fullback and either Melton Brooks of Borger and Kelvin Ceasar of Abilene

In the secondary, Mankin will start Aaron Gilbreath and Richardson at the corner back Richards and Ceasar and Gordon Jarman at the safety positions.

Admission to the game will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Mescalero Park News Thursday Club Meets At Tow's

By TOOTIE BYBEE

HELLO AGAIN FROM this little Oasis to you wherever you happen to be. Guess we have all been pretty busy this week with all the activities going on around us.

THANKS TO MIKE Whitehead for the following information: The Indian Guides first year Tribe was organized in the Whitehead home Thursday, Oct. 12. There were seven boys and seven dads who are members. The Chief was selected and is Roger Whitehead. The Assistant Chief is Duane Howard. Wampum Bearer is Larry Brooks and Eugene Oldham is Tally Keeper.

The meetings will be held twice a month on 2nd and 4th Thursdays. The next meeting will be at the Duane Howard's home at 8:00.

Thursday, October 19. Plans for a camp-out the 28th are already underway. There is still room in the Tribe for a few more members. If you are interested and missed the organizational meeting, you are invited to attend. The Howard's home number is 352-8600. Good luck to this new venture of Dad and son fun.

WANT TO SEND a "Get Well Quick" to Steve Buckles and hope his eye is better and he'll be out and about on his bike again real soon.

HEARD THE TOW'S had a real exciting ride on their motors Saturday. They and the Bob Tow gang and a few others rode the river to Memphis and had a cold but good time together. One fatality reported, that of a rattlesnake that Uncle Bob and Mike killed.

THE LADIES THURSDAY Club met at Ann Tow's and had lunch together and shared a very good time. To those of you who had to miss this week, we sure did miss you too. Enjoyed a fine day together. We will be hearing from the Home Demonstration Club soon and hope we can organize to meet a couple times a month on this. Plus, be reading the book, at least the first two chapters of "The Late Great Planet Earth." We will start our study of this also. Be ready for a year of good times together.

BLANCHE HUDSON SPENT Friday with her sister and mother-in-law in Amarillo shopping for a wedding dress for her sister-in-law who is soon to marry. This of course was Mike's folks who were down from Melrose, N.M. to visit and shop, (and check on Blanche). I suppose everyone is checking on Blanche these days. Can't wait.

Inexperience Key To Buff Basketball Season In '72

Coach Dennis Walling's West Texas State University basketball team began practice Monday afternoon and for at least the first two days, went after it twice daily.

Walling, along with assistants Dale Blaut and Mike Mitchell, drilled the players early in the afternoon and then called them back for night sessions on Monday and Tuesday.

Wednesday was press day, and the team posed for pictures and took part in interviews before hitting it for one session.

Walling returns only one starter from last year's team, which compiled a 15-11 record, so he is looking at an inexperienced squad to start practice.

Jerry Christian, 6-6 senior from East Liverpool, Ohio, is the lone returning regular off last year's club. He scored 12 points per game and pulled in nine rebounds.

Also returning is 6-3 scoring ace Ray Golsen, from the 1970-71 team. Golsen scored 19.9 points per game in leading the Buffalo scoring attack that season. He was injured in the third game last year and missed the remainder of the season. The Missouri Valley Conference granted him one additional year of eligibility, so Golsen will again be playing for Walling's "Maroon Madness."

Returning off last year's squad are guards Mike Rodriguez and Brent Lake, who saw considerable starting duties. Guard Kyle Sunderman started one game last year, as did forward Hector Rodriguez. Forward Jon McCoy started several games.

Joining the squad are a pair of junior college guards—Tommy Jordan and Jay Benn. Jordan, 6-5, is a high-scoring athlete from Philadelphia, who played at South Plains Junior College in Levelland, Texas. Benn is from Mason City, Ia.

Freshman forward Reginald Ramey, 6-8, could see some varsity action. The 21-year-old Army veteran is also from Philadelphia.

Scott Doores, two-year letterman, and squadman Tom Brownfield are playing football on the Buffalo varsity and will get late starts. Doores has seen limited starting duty during his two years on the Buffalo cage teams.

Up from last year's freshman group are its two leading scorers—6-6 Robbie Graham and 6-7 Gary Francis. Graham, from Amarillo Caprock, supported a 19.5 scoring mark on the Buffalo freshman team, while Francis scored 13 points per game and led the club in rebounding.

Mrs. Addie Morgan Hefner

Mrs. Hefner, 102, Dies

Mrs. Addie Morgan Hefner, 102, died Sunday in Crosbyton Hospital.

A long-time resident of Canyon, Mrs. Hefner had lived in Crosbyton since February of this year.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Canyon First Baptist Church with the Rev. Bill Foil, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery by LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

Pallbearers were A. W. Wallace, Earl Edler, Bill Counselor, John Jennings, W. Battle Harris and Carl Eugene Hair.

Mrs. Hefner was born April 15, 1870 at Lead Hill, Ark. She later married James Levi Hefner in 1888. He preceded her in death on Oct. 31, 1932.

The Hefners moved to Canyon in January 1924 from Silverton.

Mrs. Hefner was a member of the Canyon First Baptist Church and for many years received the annual award from that church as the oldest mother on Mothers Day.

She had been a member of the Pioneer Club and the Mother-in-Law Club and was active in her Sunday school class.

Survivors include a son, O. B. Hefner of Crosbyton; daughters, Mrs. Otta Lee Elkins of Fort Worth, Mrs. Opal Dickerson of Orlando, Fla., Mrs. Treva Elliott and Mrs. Gertie Smith, both of Winter Garden, Fla.; grandchildren, James Inman, Jerre Inman, Harold Prichard, Neal Hefner, Joe Murray Hefner, Gordon Dickerson, Don Dickerson, Carol Ray Dickerson, Mozelle Cox, Jeleta Bigham and Temple Elliott.

Boosters Buy Whirlpool Bath

The Eagle Booster's Club, with some 20 members present Monday night, voted to buy a whirlpool bath for the girl's physical education program.

The unit, costing $500, has been ordered and should be installed within the next ten days, said president Elton Cox.

Coach Ron Mills introduced several players to the group and presented game-film highlights of last weekend's game with Palo Duro.

Mills, in discussing his team's sixth straight loss, noted that the Eagles gained more first downs and more total yardage than did the Dons. He cited failure to move the ball near the end of the field as the primary reason for the shutout loss.

In talking of Friday night's encounter with Levelland, Mills expressed confidence that his team would make a good showing against district competition after five weeks of going up against higher classed 4-A teams.

The coach said the team is working to improve the weaknesses discovered during the first part of the season against the strong opponents faced.

Eagle Boosters meet each Monday at 7 p.m. at the First National Bank in Canyon.

Mother-In-Law Club Holds Meet

The National Association of Mother-in-Law Clubs met for their regular luncheon and business meeting recently in the Amarillo Federation of Women's Clubs building. Mrs. W.R. Shackelford, president, presided.

Hostesses for the luncheon were members of the Palo Duro Mother-in-Law Club of Canyon, represented by Mrs. Ray Walters and Ethel Campfield.

During the business meeting the national association, comprising 13 clubs in the Panhandle, voted to give financial help to three nursing students from the Mamie Carter Walker Nursing Fund.

The next meeting of the club will be a Christmas party on Monday, Dec. 11 at 1:30 p.m. in the Victorian room of the clubhouse.

THE TOP OF TEXAS BOARD MEETING

of the Texas Women's Clubs is scheduled today at the First Christian Church of Stratford.

Mrs. Don Max Vars will lead the meeting there and several Canyon clubwomen will attend the event.

The theme for the meeting is "Rediscover Panhandle Treasures."

FESTIVE FOODS will bake and test next Thursday in a program by that name given by the Southwestern Public Service.

The Randall County Home Demonstration Club Council is sponsoring the annual event—which is open to the public.

FREE RECIPE BOOKLETS will be available at the meeting—so get there early enough to get one! Sessions are scheduled from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m.

THE LITTLE MISS CANYON PAGEANT will be held Saturday night at 7 p.m. in the Canyon High School auditorium.

The event is being sponsored by the Xi Kappa Zeta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Tickets for the event are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

THE HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL is going to be held at the Bull Barn Oct. 31. There the youngsters can enjoy any number of different fun games. (So plan to attend.) The event is sponsored by the Canyon Study Club, by the way.

TALENT TIME IS FEBRUARY 3! Yes, prizes to those selected in three divisions as tops in talent will be named the night of February 3. Remind the entrants-to-be to start practicing early so that each act will have that finished look.

More on this later.

YES, THERE WILL BE A GAME NIGHT IN CANYON! It has been set for December 2 from 7 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. at the ballroom of the WTSU Activities Center.

Festive in nature, the games will feature yummy refreshments and door prizes. Tickets are $1 each and will benefit the Canyon Division of the Opportunity Plan.

The event will be sponsored by the Federated Council—so bring your bridge club, domino group, or whatever and plan on attending.

TASTE TESTED FROM THE "FESTIVE FOOD"

Recipe booklet—ROAST CHICKEN WITH ALMOND-ORANGE GLAZE

- 1 large fryer
- 1 1/2 c. cornbread crumbs
- 1 c. bread crumbs
- 1/4 c. chopped onion
- 1/4 c. chopped celery
- 1 T. chopped parsley
- 1/2 c. sliced almonds
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. poultry seasoning
- 2 T. water
- 1/4 c. melted margarine

Prepare stuffing for chicken by combining crumbs, onion, celery, parsley, almonds, salt, poultry seasoning, water and margarine. Stuff bird. Place legs in tucked position and turn wing tips back. Brush generously with margarine and cover lightly with a tent of foil. Roast in a 325 oven for 2 1/2 to 3 hrs. During the last 15 minutes of roasting time, spoon the following over the chicken:

Glaze

- 4 tsp. cornstarch
- 1/4 tsp. ground ginger
- 1/2 c. white corn syrup
- 1 c. orange juice
- 1/4 c. slivered almonds

Mix cornstarch and ginger together. Stir in white corn syrup, add orange juice. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, about 5 to 7 minutes. Add almonds.

News Brief

Board members of the South Randall County Hospital District reviewed their monthly financial report Monday night during a regular meeting.

No other action was taken.

Administrator Ray Grimes said architect for the proposed 50-bed hospital to be constructed in Canyon visited the city last week to further discuss plans.

"We should be in the stage where we can start some concrete planning soon," he said.

Firemen begin the clean-up procedure after a fire Tuesday night destroyed 12,000 poinsettia plants and heavily damaged three greenhouse buildings at Irwin Greenhouse, Inc., north of Canyon. Owner Jim Irwin speculated the cause of the fire may have been faulty wiring.

Fire Destroys Flowers, Buildings At Greenhouse

A slow-burning fire virtually destroyed three buildings and 12,000 poinsettia plants maturing for the Christmas season late Tuesday at Irwin Greenhouses, Inc., about four miles north of Canyon.

Six units from the Canyon Fire Department fought the blaze, which one fire official termed a unique fire, for less than 20 minutes.

Damage has been estimated at near the $150,000 mark.

Fiberglass siding burned slowly in the dark and wilted the poinsettia plants inside the three northernmost buildings. Fire partially damaged two other buildings in a northern bank of eight greenhouses.

Twenty greenhouse buildings make up the greenhouse complex.

Fire Capt. Joe Rice said the local fire department received the call on the fire at about 10:30 p.m. Tuesday.

"This was a unique call," he said, "in that we used only a couple of hundred gallons of water and the fire caused that much damage."

Rice said fiberglass is relatively easily doused.

Jim Irwin, owner of the greenhouses, watched firemen clean up after fighting the blaze. His face darkened by soot, Irwin hurried from building to building, concerned about the safety of his other greenhouses.

Irwin speculated that faulty wiring caused the fire.

Pointing to a breezeway-type structure between the north 8-building bank of greenhouses and his other greenhouses to the south, Irwin said the fire held the potential to destroy all his buildings and their contents. The breezeway was constructed of sheet metal.

As firemen were preparing to leave Tuesday night, Irwin was trying to contact an electrician to restore electricity to his other greenhouses for temperature control and watering devices.

He said the fire wiped out his area-famous production of Christmas poinsettias.

"We'll take care of our customers somehow," he said.

WEAL Head Due Here Next Week

The president of the Texas Women's Equity Action League (WEAL) will be in Canyon next week and is scheduled to speak at several functions.

Dr. Paula Latimer, a Dallas housewife turned activist, will be met at Amarillo Air Terminal at 9 a.m. Wednesday by a group of Young Democrats from West Texas State University.

Dr. Latimer, who filed a civil rights complaint against the university for discrimination against women last winter, will speak to the Young Democrats at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the activities center.

Thursday afternoon, Dr. Latimer has said she will attend a civil service board meeting in Amarillo called to hear the case of Amarillo Police Sgt. John Bacon, who was promoted recently to lieutenant and then demoted again to sergeant.

Dr. Latimer will speak to the American Civil Liberties Union from this area at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the activities center at WTSU.

On Friday, the WEAL president will spend most of her day on the university campus. She is scheduled to speak to several sociology classes.

During the past year, Dr. Latimer has either taken action or helped others take action in cases involving apparent discrimination in Canyon.

Last winter, she filed a complaint with the Office of Civil Rights in Dallas alleging WTSU discriminates against women.

An investigating team from the Dallas office visited the campus last summer, and verified her complaint and established certain corrective action programs for the university to follow.

Also during the summer, Dr. Latimer helped Mrs. Marguerite Strain, an employee of the city of Canyon, in her efforts to file a complaint against the Texas Municipal Employees Retirement System.

Mrs. Strain charged the system discriminates against women because it will pay benefits on two different scales—one for men, which is the higher, and one for women, which is the lower.

Roping Tests Begin Sat. At Happy

The third annual Wesley-Sims Memorial Roping, sponsored annually by the Happy Rodeo Association, begins at 2 p.m. Saturday at Happy Rodeo Arena.

Jackpot calf roping begins the two-day roping event Saturday. Steer roping gets underway at 2 p.m. Sunday.

Fifty-four calf ropers will be competing Saturday for more than $2700 and a hand-tooled trophy saddle. Forty-seven steer ropers will compete Sunday for more than $12,000 prize money and a trophy saddle.

Among this year's entrants are Troy Fort of Lovington, N.M., Clark McIntyre of Kiowa, Okla., Walter Arnold of Silverton, Tuffy Thompson of Happy, James Allen of Santa Anna, Olin Young of Peralta, N.M., Sonny Davis of Kenna, N.M., Wade Lewis of Hereford, Paul Howard of Farwell and Don McLaughlin of Fort Collins, Colo.

Each day's contest will include a contest during which each

Randle Will Win Office, But What Happens Then?

Farrell Randle is a cinch to be elected to office in Randall County next month.

But, exactly what he's going to do once elected isn't clear.

Randle, a South Amarillo man, is the sole candidate for the office of constable in precinct 1 of the county.

Back in the spring, Randle filed for the office and, according to County Clerk LeRoy Hutton, he filed in the wrong precinct. He lives in justice precinct 4, but he filed in precinct 1.

Randle met no opposition in the primary elections, but he met some unexpected results from the Randall County commissioners court.

Last May, commissioners voted to pay the constable $1 per year with no office space or car allowance.

Since his race is uncontested, Randle will no doubt win election as constable in the Canyon area and his term of office will begin Jan. 1.

What he does from there is anybody's guess.

State statutes outline a constable's duties:

"Each constable shall execute and return according to law all processes, warrants and precepts to him directed and delivered by any lawful officer, attend upon all justice courts held in his precinct and perform all such duties required of him by law."

The law also provides that in case he has trouble serving a warrant, he can summon a posse.

Since Randle will be the first constable the county's had in years, county officials are in a quandary about what his job will really be. He has no office space, no car and no salary.

"I don't think it's going to work so well," said

Congressmen Pledge Probe Of 'No-Recourse' Loans

By CARROLL WILSON

Congressmen Graham Purcell and Bob Price pledged this week they will investigate the law which says FHA-insured loans must carry a no-recourse clause for houses and apartment complexes.

The Canyon News called for the investigation after learning last week that no-recourse loans insured by FHA may be resulting in the loss of millions of tax dollars annually.

The two congressmen also pledged that if their investigations indicate that no-recourse loans have become drains on taxpayer money they will introduce legislation to change the law.

FHA officials in Lubbock told The News last week that defaults on no-recourse loans are "a nationwide scandal."

A no-recourse loan, simply stated, means that a lending company will not hold the person to whom the money is loaned personally responsible if payments on the loan cannot be met. Rather, the FHA, which officials say is required by law to attach the no-recourse rider on an insured project, will assume responsibility for the remainder of the loan.

Congressman Purcell said this week he was not aware that the law required an FHA-insured loan to be no-recourse in nature.

"I'm willing to find out if the law requires this and then I'll be glad to get that law changed," he said.

The congressman said he realized there had been some trouble with FHA insured loans, but had not understood the source of the trouble.

Congressman Price, who said the FBI is investigating several FHA-insured projects in the Dallas area, called the no-recourse rider law "a rotten deal."

"Anybody could go in and as long as they could show some substance could get one of these loans," he said. "Then, if the thing went bankrupt the taxpayers would lose."

Price said he'd "like to know the loss record for the last five years."

He vowed to investigate the no-recourse law and, if it proved to be a loophole, to introduce legislation to change the law.

Don Earney, director of the district insuring office for the Department of Housing and Urban Development in Lubbock, told The News last week a no-recourse rider is attached to each deed of trust filed in connection with an FHA insured loan.

"I frankly think we should have recourse on a loan when someone just walks off and leaves his house or anything," he said.

Earney said with the no-recourse rider, would-be mortgagees, since they are not held personally responsible, could "walk off" from an FHA insured loan and "leave us holding the bag."

Price, Purcell? Downstate Unsure

BY BOB HAMILTON

(The Canyon News asked Bob Hamilton, publisher of the Iowa Park Leader to write the following article indicating the feeling of voters in the Wichita Falls area concerning the Bob Price-Graham Purcell race for Congress.)

In an ordinary election year, you'd have to say Graham Purcell is a shoo-in to be returned to Congress in the Nov. 7 general election from the newly organized 13th district.

But, there's a persistent nagging this year: "I really don't know for sure."

Purcell is at home in the Southeastern portion of the 13th district. It's been his life-long home and he's taken all comers in previous elections and won walking away. No Republican, in fact, has ever even posed a challenge.

But, now, you can't be so sure about how the distinctive-looking veteran politician will fare next month.

Pampa's Bob Price would ordinarily pose no problem to Purcell in Wichita Falls area boxes. In any other campaign year, Price would do well to even get his name mentioned by the news media here, let alone be mentioned as a serious threat.

Sen. John Tower is the only Republican who has made it successfully on the campaign trail here.

But, the north central Texas area is conservative.

And, so far as many voters here are concerned, the national Democratic Party has left them.

The effect this area's voter opinion of the national party will have on Purcell is not really in clear sight now. Opinions on the outcome are about as numerous as people willing to give them.

In this area, Purcell figures he can get before the people and he does it. He's at every gathering larger than a Sunday school class and lately he's taken the caravan route visiting every town and wide spot in the road.

Price, on the other hand, is apparently attempting to be seen not just as an individual, but as a spokesman for the Nixon administration.

He's made public appearances here with such administration big guns as Secretary of Agriculture Butz and Secretary of Defense Laird.

The Republican nominee has started something in this area which he's been doing for some time in the Panhandle. One of his staff members is traveling to area towns where he listens to complaints or problems people have with the federal government.

And, late last winter, the Congressman was holding what he termed town hall meetings throughout this part of the state. But, not many people showed up.

Price's appeal to the people in the southeastern part of the district doesn't appear to have generated a lot of outward support. But, not many people are stumping for Purcell either.

You get the feeling here that Purcell would carry the area with a landslide vote were it not for George McGovern and his new Democratic Party. Purcell is a Democrat and he won't publicly reject the South Dakota liberal.

Whether a Republican outsider can defeat a local Democratic candidate with an albatross around his neck remains to be seen.

But it's a cinch that neither one is a shoo-in for the seat in this part of the territory.

Absentee Vote Underway Here

Absentee balloting for the Nov. 7 general election began Wednesday in the Randall County clerk's Canyon and Amarillo offices.

Clerk LeRoy Hutton said anyone who expects to be absent from the county on election day may vote absentee by appearing in person at either office.

If a person is currently out of town and will not be in the county between now and election day he may contact Hutton by mail for a mail ballot.

Hutton said his offices will remain open Oct. 28 and 29 from 2-8 p.m. in Amarillo for absentee balloting.

Dowlen Backs State Death Bill

If Texas legislators had been called into another special session this week by Gov. Preston Smith, Randall County Dist. Atty. George Dowlen feels certain they would have taken action on a bill establishing a mandatory death penalty for certain crimes.

Dowlen, a member of the organization which has pushed for the new legislation, said the sooner the bill is passed into law the better.

The bill, which was written by the Texas County and District Attorneys Association, was presented the legislature Monday by Rep. Jack Ogg of Houston.

But, due to a mechanical rule in the legislature which says a bill must be presented a minimum of three days before the end of a session, the bill remained in committee.

Dowlen was confident it would be revived had the governor called a special session to continue the session completed at midnight Tuesday.

The bill provides a mandatory life or death penalty for persons committing the following crimes: murder of a police officer acting in the line of duty; intentional murder during a kidnapping, burglary, rape or arson; murder committed for money; murder committed while escaping from a penal institution; murder of a prison guard; murder with extreme atrocity or under circumstances showing exceptional depravity.

A two-time convicted murderer would also come under the bill's provisions.

Vietnamese Orphanage Needs Clothing, Items

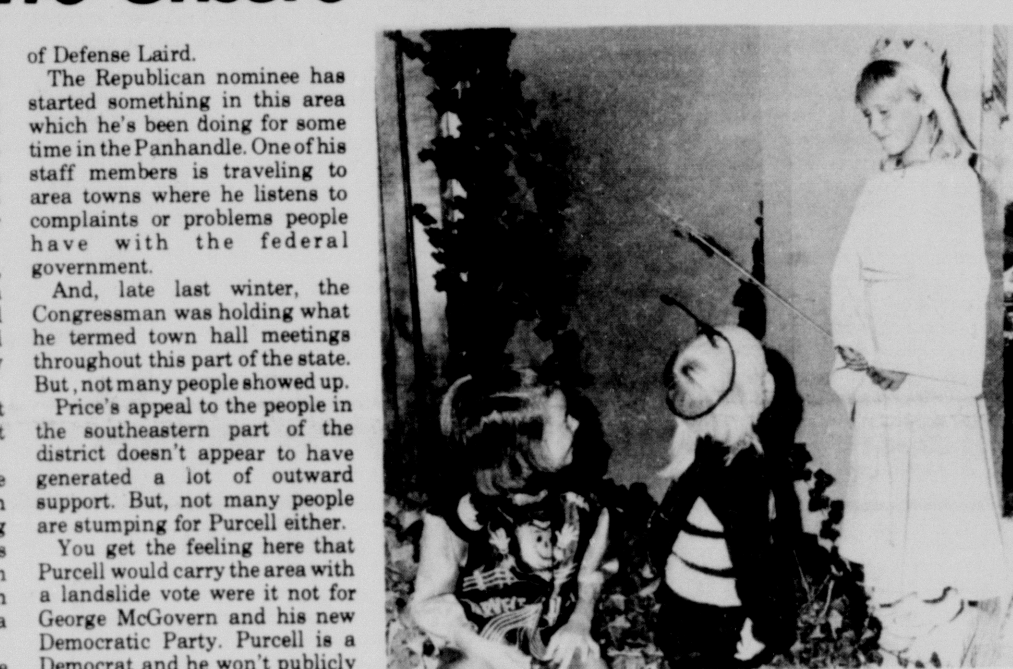

Clothing and other items for an orphanage in Vietnam are being collected this week by Canyon Junior High School Future Homemakers of America.

The homemakers, sponsored by Mrs. Lynette Whitley, are sponsoring a drive which will end Tuesday to collect the supplies. The club has already earned enough money to ship the items to the orphanage.

Mrs. Whitley said she became interested in helping the orphanage last spring when Maj. John Osborne, a former instructor at West Texas State University now serving in Vietnam, told her of their need.

She said Osborne returned recently to Canyon on 30 days leave and spoke to the Future Homemakers about the

MVC Stresses Education, Visiting Commissioner Says

BY JIM SANDS

The Missouri Valley Conference "is the educational conference," says Mickey Holmes, commissioner of the athletic organization of which West Texas State University is a member.

Commissioner Holmes, in his first year at the helm of the MVC, talked of sports fitting into the scholastic picture of member schools while he was in the area last weekend. He said he had come to WTSU to become acquainted with the school, its program and its administration.

During a news conference, Holmes said the MVC is the only such athletic conference which requires athletes to work toward a degree. "Scholastic achievement requirements are the toughest in the country...there is no free ride for athletes," he stressed.

Holmes, an assistant commissioner with the Big Eight Conference for several years, said the high degree of graduation found in the MVC was a valuable tool for recruitment of athletes and helped in the overall reputation of member institutions.

According to the commissioner, players of interscholastic sports must be educated and given a place in society in the same manner as academic scholars. "If we can't achieve that goal, we had better go back and check ourselves," he said.

Holmes said that unlike some of the major power conferences, the MVC has not advanced its Bufs To Face Huskies In Illinois Contest Sat.

West Texas State University's Buffaloes, fresh from a record-breaking offensive effort against New Mexico State University, will tackle the Northern Illinois Huskies at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

The Buffaloes rushed for 578 yards in the 63-14 victory over New Mexico State and that total is a new Missouri Valley Conference single game record, bettering the old mark of 534 set by Tulsa against Kansas State in 1951.

Three Buffalo backs — Cole Fraley, Billy Pritchett and Rick Schleider — exceeded 100 yards in rushing. Fraley had 162, Schleider 145 and Pritchett 139.

In Northern Illinois, the Buffaloes will be facing the biggest team they have met this season. The Huskies front defensive four averages 250 pounds per man.

Northern Illinois, with a 3-3 season record, features the power running of 230-pound junior Mark Keller. He has 683 yards and has scored six touchdowns. Tailback Jerry Latin is next with 393 yards and one touchdown.

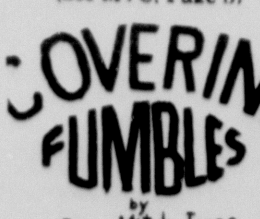

To match that, the Buffaloes have three running backs with at least 300 yards. Fraley leads the team with a total of 455 yards. Pritchett, an All-Missouri Valley selection last year, has 400 yards and Jimmy Lisle has 300.

The Huskies hold a big edge over the Buffaloes in passing. Mike Wartes is leading Buff thrower with 13 completions in 40 attempts for 261 yards and two touchdowns. Northern Illinois is led by quarterback Terry Dragan, who has 29 completions in 67 attempts for 369 yards.

Split End Willie Hatter, an All-American candidate, is the leading Huskie receiver with 16 receptions for 251 yards. Tight end Don Martin is next with eight catches for 96 yards.

The Huskies have wins over Illinois State, 21-7; Marshall, 24-

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

Federal officials admit that developers are skimming millions off FHA funds all over the country through apparently legal although shady means.

This is how it is done.

You're a developer about to construct a huge apartment house complex. You secure a non-recourse FHA insured loan for say $1,500,000 knowing all along that you can construct the complex for $1,250,000.

Why FHA would let you do it is more than I know but apparently it's being done all over the nation.

This leaves you with $250,000 known in the trade as "walk away money." In addition, you can make a payment or two and then default letting the loan ride for as much as six months to a year. This way you get the benefit of rent money from the time of default to time of foreclosure.

Non-recourse simply means that the developer can walk out with any cash not tied down and still have no further responsibility for repaying the loan. Often the developer is quite wealthy but neither FHA nor the lending firm can even get their hands on the walk away money.

The taxpayer is stuck for the bill.

Federal agents say this type of shenanigan is going on across the country with such regularity as to assume the proportions of a national scandal. Apparently it is within the scope of laws governing FHA and there is little that can be done about it unless it can be established that there has been an intent to defraud.

I talked to Wayne Davidson with the Internal Revenue Service Tuesday and got the real bombshell. The theoretical quarter million in walk away money mentioned here is not even taxable.

The developer can stick it in his pocket, tax free.

Anyone who has read this far and is not mad as a hornet over how the government is being taken is either a saint or doesn't pay income tax.

It looks like the country has been so preoccupied with complaining over welfare that big time scoundrels have been able to haul off taxpayers' cash by the truck load all but unnoticed.

It seems to me that FHA officials could do something about walk away money but they say they simply are administering a law passed by Congress. It's a cinch they can't change the non-recourse aspect until the law itself is changed.

That's what The Canyon News is trying to do.

News Editor Carroll Wilson contacted both candidates for Congress from this district and was assured of the help in effecting a remedy.

He will be contacting John Tower, Barefoot Sanders and Lloyd Bentsen, Jr., within the week.

I've been told that HUD is going to be scandal ridden too in the near future.

Meanwhile, G-men are quietly going about investigating individual cases but from here it seems like trying to clean the Augean stables with a toothbrush.

FHA first came into being as an effort to help people of moderate means to buy their own homes. Through the years it has been fairly successful.

To allow a dime of this money to be swallowed up by graft is like feeding to hogs food intended for children.

It is difficult for me, a callous newspaperman, to realize that there are people with hearts so hard.

I knew Tuesday was going to be a bad day when I stumbled into the bathroom and brushed my teeth with Brylcreem.

The guy who said "a little dab'll do you" really knew what he was talking about.

Baby Girl Born

To Metcalfs

Mr. and Mrs. Glen R. Metcalf of Abernathy welcomed the arrival of a new daughter, Reagan, born Sept. 26 at Neblett Memorial Hospital. She weighed 7 lbs. 6 oz. and was 20 inches in length at birth.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Lair, 2423 9th Ave., are the maternal grandparents.

The paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Metcalf, northwest of Canyon.

The parents, longtime residents of Canyon, recently moved to Abernathy where Metcalf is city manager.

Joint Tax Office Okayed

The Canyon City Commission and the Canyon School Board, in a joint meeting Tuesday night, voiced approval of the year-old combined city-school tax office operation and voted to continue the venture.

City officials said they were pleased with the combined operation which costs the city five per cent of the funds collected.

City Manager George Louderer cited assessor-collector Conway Kuykendall for his efficiency in the tax office and termed the system "excellent."

School Superintendent Jerry Jacobs said both agencies were saving money through the operation of the joint office. "It generates efficiency and serves the people," he added.

Kuykendall, in regard to the collection of delinquent taxes, said the use of legal action had also helped prompt people to pay their taxes earlier.

According to Louderer, the collection of delinquent taxes for the past year had been about 30 per cent more than anticipated. One-fourth of the taxes coming through the combined office are city taxes, Kuykendall said.

The city commission ended its short session immediately after the tax office discussion, with the school officials remaining to conduct normal business.

In other action, the board approved accounts payable which included $10,000 for a vacant city block adjoining the high school. At present, the site is used as a band practice field.

Scores High

By Golfers

West Texas State University's golf team ran into rain and high winds during last week's Tucker Invitational Tournament at Albuquerque and its scores climbed higher than was allowed.

The Buffaloes were among the seven teams cut after Friday's third round. Coach Vern Farquhar said four of his players teed off at 7:45 a.m. that day in heavy rain and high winds, but said the weather cleared somewhat for players who competed in the afternoon.

Jerry Boeka led the Buffalo golfers with rounds of 76, 73, and 79. Other three-round totals were John 242, Mickey Piersall 244, Dick Weston 246, Randall Burton 248, and Junior Salinas 262.

West Texas competes in two weeks at the Socorro, N.M., Collegiate Invitational Tournament.

Mrs. Barefoot Sanders

Coffee To Honor

Candidate's Wife

Mrs. Barefoot Sanders, wife of Democratic nominee for the U.S. Senate, will be honored at a coffee from 2 to 4 p.m. Friday at the First National Bank hospitality room.

The general public is invited through the press. The Young Democrats of West Texas State University will host the affair.

Mrs. Sanders will arrive in Amarillo tonight and will spend Friday campaigning through the Panhandle.

Carnival Booths

To Serve Up

Halloween Fun

Eleven organizations so far will set up booths at the Halloween Carnival to take place in the Bull Barn on Halloween night, Tuesday, Oct. 31, from 6 to 10 p.m. The event is sponsored by Canyon Study Club with Mrs. Jim Brown as chairman.

The Home Demonstration Council will be selling hamburgers, cokes, and homemade pies. Southside Baptist YMA will be selling peanuts, popcorn, and candy, and Alpha Theta Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will be selling caramel and candied apples as well as sponsoring apple bobbing.

Some of the games and their sponsors are a nickel toss by Canyon Dames, ring toss by Scabbard and Blade, toy walk by Heritage Study Club, bingo by the Lions Club, and hammer and nails by University Study Club. The HERO Club will have a car wash, and Rotary Club will have a concession as yet undecided.

Each club will also sponsor a queen candidate, who must be a high school student. Jars with the girls' names will be distributed around town a week before the carnival so people may vote for the candidate of their choice by putting money in the jar.

Persons interested in sponsoring a booth may contact Mrs. Brown at 655-7560 or may call Mrs. James Lundy at 655-4357.

New Son Born

To Stringfellows

A new baby son, Kevin Scott, was born Oct. 5 at Neblett Memorial Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stringfellow of No. 103, Pioneer Village. He weighed 7 lbs. 14 oz. and was 20 inches in length.

The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jones of Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stringfellow, also of Andrews, are the paternal grandparents.

This is the first child for the Stringfellows. The father is a senior computer science major at WTSU and also is employed as a software consultant for Burroughs Corp.

Bond Official

Due In Area

Randall County Commissioners will attend a reception Tuesday night for a New York City bonding company officer who will be in the area next week.

William McCarty of Moody Investment Service of New York City has been named evaluator of the Amarillo area for bonding purposes.

The reception will be at 6:30 p.m. at the Amarillo Club.

Amarillo City Manager John Stiff said McCarty will not visit Canyon, but will drive through the city some time Tuesday. After arriving in Amarillo, he will tour the entire area by air.

Daughter Born

To Larry Wynns

A new baby girl, Laura Christi, was born Sept. 27 in Neblett Memorial Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Larry Doyle Wynn of Umbarger. She weighed 8 lbs. 1 oz. and measured 20 1/2 inches in length.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Delaney of Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Wynn of Turkey are the paternal grandparents.

Laura Christi is the Wynn's first child. The father is employed at Buffalo Lake Wildlife Refuge and was formerly a teacher with the Amarillo Public schools.

Commissioner Will Attend Grant Meet

Randall County Commissioner Jim Fletcher said Monday he will attend a federally-sponsored meeting in Fort Worth next week on revenue sharing and government grants with the ultimate idea of returning to Canyon and setting up a similar conference here.

During the regular session of commissioners court, Judge Woody Pond suggested a meeting for the 26 counties of the Panhandle be sponsored by the area County Judges and Commissioners Association, which he heads.

Pond said following the meeting he hopes the meeting can be set up in the not-too-distant future in Canyon.

The Fort Worth meeting is one of several to be held downstate. It is scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. Audrey Bruse, tax assessor-collector, received permission from the court to purchase several computer printouts listing taxable personal property items so tax office employees can figure changes of ownership and begin compiling next year's tax roll.

Cost of the printouts, which would be purchased from current county computer firm, would be $150.

Mrs. Bruse said this will be the first year the printouts are used. In the past, she said, compiling lists of personal property has been done manually.

Commissioners approved a plat presented by Pete Hudson for a development called Timbercreek Canyon near the Palisades in Randall County.

Hudson said the development includes 51 acres in 38 lots.

Voter Guide

Error Cited

On Amendment

The secretary of the Palo Duro Soil and Water Conservation District took issue this week with a Voter's Guide distributed throughout the state by the League of Women Voters.

Bob McCaslin said the Guide contains a crucial error in its analysis of Amendment 9, which will appear on the Nov. 7 general election ballot for voter consideration.

The amendment, one of 14 slated for the ballot, would, if passed, provide that directors of soil and water conservation districts are not disqualified from holding or being compensated for more than one office.

Currently, directors of such districts may receive no pay if they hold more than one local level or above office.

Directors of the Palo Duro district currently receive mileage and per diem payments for attending district meetings or when they're on district business.

District chairman Ed Wieck is currently serving on the Canyon School Board and receives no mileage or per diem from the district.

McCaslin said the League of Women Voters guide is wrong when it states soil and water conservation districts have the power to tax.

A law passed by the Texas legislature in 1941 prohibits districts from levying taxes, McCaslin said.

He also took issue with the Guide statements that the directors receive compensation.

"We do receive per diem and mileage, but we don't get any salary," he said.

Homecoming

Said Success

In spite of cold weather and the Texas-Oklahoma football game, homecoming activities Saturday at West Texas State University were successful.

That's the opinion of Hank Brown, executive director of the Ex-Students Association, who helped plan the festivities.

Brown said about 2,000 ex-students were on campus Saturday for activities ranging from a carnival, to the performance of Lily Tomlin to Saturday night's WTSU-New Mexico State football game.

He said he feels homecoming this year was more of a success than homecomings in the past.

PTA Drive Champs Win Banana Splits

BY TROYCE MULHERIN
GREETINGS:

WINNERS—BANANA SPLIT parties were the order of the day Monday at Gene Howe school. Loy Bell's first grade class tied in the PTA membership drive contest for grades kindergarten through third.

Mrs. Marguerite Green's sixth grade class took first place honors in the contest for the fourth through sixth grades. Approximately ninety banana splits were constructed and were happily consumed by the deserving youngsters in these three rooms.

TOTAL PTA MEMBERSHIP for Gene Howe climbed to 490 so far this year. Darlyne Bell serves as Membership Chairman. Margaret Ingram, Beth Balke and Tootie Bybee round out this committee. These ladies have expended a lot of time and effort in so ably fulfilling their responsibilities on this committee. A big job—well done.

ANOTHER WINNER—KODY Patterson. Kody is the representative from the Gene Howe band who brought home the $5.00 prize for selling the most tickets in dollars for the spaghetti supper sponsored by the Canyon band parents. Kody's mom and dad are Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Patterson. Kody is in Mrs. Parson's sixth grade homeroom at Gene Howe.

MRS. DON GLENN, one of Gene Howe's campus representatives to the band parents club, feels it could easily be said that the spaghetti supper was a success. Over 600 people were served, more than were expected. The support and encouragement shown regarding this supper are greatly appreciated, and plans for next year are being formulated. Thank you, Peoples.

MORE WINNERS—A great big "congratulations to you all" for Coaches Schmidt and Balke and their sixth grade team—hereafter to be known as Champions! This team played Margaret Willis last Sunday, and when the final whistle blew, our boys were champions of the Cimarron League. That's the way, Big Birds. "Big Birds" is the phraseology coined by this team's enthusiastic cheerleaders. Gene Howe Falcons—Big Birds, get it? You know who had to have it explained in detail. Anyway, we are all proud of these young men and appreciative of the honor they have brought to our area.

DORIS AND JAMES Nash and youngsters, Susan and Tim, spent a weekend recently in Red River, square dancing mostly. Doris said the color was fading fast, but still beautiful. Same sentiments were expressed by Pat Seth. She and Bill went up this same weekend with their square dance club for the annual Aspen Festival sponsored by the Red River Chamber of Commerce. Tim, Bill and Chris Seth went up, too, but skipped the dancing. Talk about a young man with foresight, Bill Seth put his time to work securing a job for himself in Red River next summer. He is apparently planning ahead to combine business and pleasure.

THERE ARE TEN couples in the Seth's square dance club, and Pat relates that if there are any couples in the Gene Howe area interested in becoming square dancers, this club will start conducting lessons for them. Call either the Nashs or the Seths, if you would like to start lessons. Fun way to exercise, not to mention the excellent companionship of fellow square dancers.

EVEN ANOTHER WINNER—lovely young lady by the name of Ronda Ray. Ronda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olen G. Ray and a member of Scout Troop 8 at Gene Howe. Her leader, Mrs. Guy Bufkin, is quite proud of Ronda's accomplishments and interest in her Scout work. To date Ronda has earned 39 badges out of a total of 47 badges available to her. She has also earned the Sign of the Star and the Sign of the Arrow. These accomplishments reflect a great deal of determination and effort on Ronda's part and it is to the credit of her troop, her leader and her mother. A fine young lady of whom we can be justly proud.

MORE WINNERS—THIS is how Sherrie Cates rates "her team" and their work with the den leader training course recently completed. The course was held at the First United Methodist Church. Special thanks to the church for the use of the hall and for the coffee furnished to those undertaking the course. Mrs. Sarah Edwards presented Stunts, Skits and Puppets; Mrs. Betty Stokes presented Games; and, Mrs. Pat Seth presented the Crafts section of the training. Mrs. Cates is the Den Leader Coach for Pack 130 of Gene Howe. This pack is re-possible for the presentation of the Stunts, Skits and Puppets program at the Council wide Pow Wow to be held this Saturday. Mrs. Edwards will be doing the honors in this presentation, and Mrs. Stokes will be assisting her. These ladies deserve recognition and much thanks for their work with the scouts—and we thank you all, very much.

GENE HOWE AREA faces seen at the initiation of students in the National Junior Honor Society recently held in Canyon. Laura Taylor played musical selections; Darla Carthel and Becky Hawkins were two of the trio who sang so beautifully. Students being honored were Donnie Bell, Carrie Camfield, Cathren Cantrell, Kayla Davlin, Mark Hanson and Sharon Ramaekers, to name a few from our area. Ron Mills, son of Nynvia Mills (Mrs. Mills is a third grade teacher at Gene Howe), is the President of the National Junior Honor Society. We are real proud of all these young people.

"CARING 'N SHARING" was the theme of the recent PTA Fall Seminar sponsored by District 8. Representing Gene Howe were Gwyn Sellers, Glenna Schmidt, Ernestine Harp, Doris Nash and Troyce Mulherin. Miss Harriet Griffin of Fort Worth, the state PTA representative, spoke on "Now Roles in the PTA." Group buzz session emphasizing "Caring 'n Sharing" comprised the second session of this seminar.

SHANNON EDWARDS, SON of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edwards, celebrated his ninth birthday with a miniature golf party. Tim and Steve Stokes,

Kelly Mayfield and David Bromley helped with the fun making and birthday cake eating. Many more happyes to you, Shannon.

THE MEMBERS OF the Town and Country Home Demonstration Club were treated to a demonstration of "rub outs" at their recent meeting at the Hobby House. They also picked up some useful information on new methods of refinishing old furniture and were introduced to some new Christmas gifts ideas. Following the meeting, the group took advantage of the open house sponsored by Amarillo furniture stores, and enjoyed touring the stores and studying the room settings. The next meeting of this club will be at ten o'clock, Wednesday, October 25. Plans at this time are to tour some junk (should we say, antique, or second-hand furniture?) stores. Anyway, you get the general idea of what they have in mind to do, and if interested in joining in on this excursion, feel free to call Melvena Brown or Sarah Edwards for details.

THE FIFTH GRADE football team coached by Mr. Paris and Mr. Phipps played against Wolfwin this past week. Their next and last game of the season will be played this Sunday at 3:30 at Crockett school in Amarillo. A family picnic will be had following the game. The place for the picnic will be announced at the game, so make a picnic basket and join in for this observance of the close of the season.

PAM AND RYAN Holt, Traci Betty, Greg Coronado and Don Meier helped John Hicks celebrate his reaching the ripe old age of six. John is the son of Phyllis and Johnny Hicks. Carla Schmidt and Shiela Hicks introduced the youngsters to party games. Unusual favors were matchbox constructions kits—same putting young minds and hands to work. Young fun, too.

BLUE AND WHITE was the color scheme of the bridal shower recently held honoring Loy Bell, bride to be of Mr. Tom Gerald. Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Juanita Evans, Mrs. Helen Cobb, Mrs. Mary Ann Kramer, Mrs. Johnnie Bass, Mrs. Linda Oldham and Mrs. Virginia Winters. A blue and white carnation centerpiece enhanced the blue cloth, with overcloth of lace, on the serving table. This bride and groom will be enjoying some unusual and surprising meals, having received a box of unlabeled canned food, from the Wilshire Street gang. Approximately thirty people attended the shower. The wedding date is set for November 2, at two o'clock at the Polk Street Methodist Church. Best wishes for this young couple.

THIS FRIDAY NIGHT, October 20, will be the eeeeeek opening night for the Haunted House sponsored by the band parents in Canyon. The creaking doors will open at seven o'clock, and for fifty cents, you can treat the ol' nerves to a good workout. If the legs and/or courage give out Friday, the ghouls will be doing their thing Saturday night, too.

FAIR WARNING—NOVEMBER 3 is a school holiday. THANKS FOR THE use of the hall and the calls. Troyce. 352-6053

Troop 8 in the Gene Howe area is proud of Ronda Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olen G. Ray, who has earned 39 badges out of a possible 47 total. (See Gene Howe column.)

Deposits In Banks Here On Increase, Call Shows

Deposits on hand and loans made by Canyon banks are up considerably from a year ago, with respective totals hitting $29,307,706 and $18,656,755.

The figures were released in response to a federal regulatory bank call issued last week.

Canyon's First National Bank figures show an increase in deposits up from $19,243,323 on Sept. 30, 1971, to $23,770,210 at the present. That bank's loan figure is up from $13,136,019 on that date a year ago to the present $14,851,392.

At West Texas State Bank, a deposit increase from $3,917,134 to $5,537,496 and a loan increase from $3,279,882 to $3,805,363 was recorded during the same time period.

At the First National Bank of Canyon, the Tuesday call date saw the facility's deposits at an all time record high, the $23.7 million topping any deposit figure in the institution's history.

Of the eight banks in the Canyon-Amarillo communities, only one, North State Bank of Amarillo, showed a lower deposit figure than recorded on a recent previous call date.

All other area banks showed increases with no one able to definitely put a finger on the reason for the upswings.

World Finals At Dragway Sat., Sunday

A premium field of cars and drivers is assured as entries continue to mount for this weekend's world finals of drag racing slated for Amarillo Dragway in north Randall County.

Sanctioned and produced by the National Hot Rod Association, the $220,000 classic will decide 1972 world titles in seven separate eliminator categories and is open only to those drivers who have earned qualifying points during the recently-concluded NHRA World Championship Series of 35 races across the U.S. and Canada.

Among the sport's super stars who filed early entries was two-time National champion Ed McCulloch of Clovis, Calif., who will be shooting for the World Funny Car crown at Amarillo.

McCulloch's Chrysler-powered Demon is the heavy favorite based upon the fantastic winning streak the veteran speedster has enjoyed thus far this season. In addition to winning the coveted national crown for the second time this year, the former Oregonian has racked up three other major NHRA victories and scored one runner-up win for an all-time record.

grants-in-aid to athletes, expected to pass at the N.C.A.A. meeting in January, will bring schools like Oklahoma, Nebraska and Texas down to our recruitment level," he said.

Along the same lines, Holmes claimed that most of the big power schools are operating their athletic programs well beyond the perspective of their educational programs. "They will have to cut back eventually," he claimed.

Getting away from football, Holmes told newsmen that WTSU had not yet "been caught up in MVC basketball madness." He said players, coaches and fans would become much more excited with conference basketball "once you start fighting for the championship."

The MVC has long been noted for its prowess in the game of basketball, fielding such powers as Louisville, St. Louis, Drake and Bradley Universities.

Holmes, a former college baseball coach, said it was hoped that all conference schools would qualify as first division athletic institutions by taking part in the eight sports as required by the N.C.A.A. Only New Mexico State and Drake now meet the requirements, the commissioner said. He said he would like to see other member schools reinstate baseball and swimming on an inter-scholastic basis.

The conference head admitted that college football has become "Saturday entertainment," but he insisted that his views demand that the conference be in the "education business." Said Holmes, "There is a growing attitude that we are in existence only to put young men in competition at the N.C.A.A. and professional levels." He denied this by citing that some 100,000 athletes are taking part in pre-college sports with only about 10,000 involved in N.C.A.A. competition. "And there are only about 1,000 playing in the pros," he said.

In an exclusive Canyon News interview during his visit to WTSU, Holmes was asked his feelings about the value of athletic programs as opposed to their cost of operation, often far above a figure of self-support.

The commissioner said that in his opinion, a strong competitive sports program was necessary to any institution of learning. He cited the involvement of non-athlete students and the morale which an athletic team can generate on the campus. Holmes called sports "a tremendous outlet for students," especially when those students get caught up in the fortunes of their teams.

When asked if operating an athletic program at the expense of non-athlete students was fair to the full educational picture, Holmes said his answer would depend on the attitude of the students.

He said he believed any athletic program should be self-supporting and not dependent upon funds from other institute projects or programs. "Excessive expenditures cannot be justified and if it happens in excess, it robs the other departments," he said. "It leaves athletes vulnerable if they have to go to the institution for X number of dollars," the commissioners stated.

Holmes, in answer to another question, said the dropping of major sports by any university would have an adverse effect on the students and their campus life. He expressed the opinion that WTSU had a unique "personality," as determined by his day-long visit, and apparently had a high degree of student interest and involvement in the sports programs. "Student interest must be among the highest in the country," he said of the Canyon campus.

In regard to bringing, or keeping, the athletic program within the scope of total education, Holmes said WTSU was in a good position to do so without too much effort as compared to the larger institutions now operating "completely out of the educational picture."

Another advantage to the WTSU program, Holmes said, was that because of its relatively small enrollment, the sports program reached a greater percent of the entire student body, therefore making the program that much more valuable.

In the Canyon Sunday News, of Oct. 22, the cost of operating the WTSU athletic program will be featured as a follow-up to this article. In that edition, the sources of funds supporting the program, in excess of normal budget and income, will be revealed.

FBI sources told The News the FHA is having trouble with no-recourse loans nationwide.

A News investigation into the partnership involved in the construction two years ago of The Canyon Creek Apartments here resulted in the discovery of the no-recourse law.

The FBI is currently investigating the partnership which owns the 100-unit apartment complex here.

A week ago, several owners told Canyon apartment house owners, they were facing foreclosure due to economic difficulties in running the apartment house.

The owners had asked West Texas State University to assume the $1.2 million FHA-insured loan to use the apartments for married student and faculty housing. The university declined to accept the offer.

The slate of officers will be announced at the meeting. To date, activities have been directed by coordinators consisting of Mrs. Betty Markham, Mrs. Peggy Smallwood, and Mrs. Kate Gamble.

Interviews with 60 referrals have now been completed, according to spokesman Mrs. Jane Stephens. In view of the large number of referrals, the group now hopes to begin with eight or ten recipients, rather than the originally planned number of six.

A need still exists for volunteer drivers to deliver the meals. Mrs. Margaret Ann Underwood has called a meeting of all volunteer drivers or those interested in volunteering for 9:30 a.m., Wednesday, Oct. 25, in the fellowship hall of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Underwood has stated that volunteer drivers will be asked to deliver only one meal a week. For further information, she may be contacted at 655-9444.

Champion calf roper last year was Dick Zachry of Fort Towson, Okla. Steer roping champ was Shoat Webster of Lenapah, Okla.

Lin Helton of LaGrande, Ore., will be announcer for the events.

A dance will be held Saturday night following the roping contest in the Jaycee Hall with music by the Harkrider Brothers of Dumas.

The annual contest is held in memory of Bowie Wesley and Wendell Sims. Wesley was born to a pioneer Happy area family. Named "Rookie of the Year" in 1968 on the rodeo circuit, he was killed in July 1970 while competing in an RCA rodeo in Montana. Sims, a native of Happy, was a prominent farmer and civic leader. He died in July 1971. Sims had been a charter member of the Happy Rodeo Association and helped build the present arena.

Umbarger 4-H Airs Projects

The Umbarger 4-H Club held their regular meeting Monday night, Oct. 16 at the Knights of Columbus Hall. Donna Hartman, president, conducted the meeting.

Sharon Ramaekers opened the meeting with a prayer and song. Special guest was Mrs. Anton Hollenstein, who talked on projects members could take up for the year.

In the business meeting, membership of the club was announced as numbering 35. Committees were appointed as follows: finance, Mr. and Mrs. Batenhorst, co-chairmen, Gerald Wilhelm, Duayne Hartman, and Mary Ann Wieck; program and recreation, Mr. and Mrs. Suthers, co-chairmen, Brenda Batenhorst, Bernie Wieck, Larry Hartman, Allen Adams, and Bryan Friemel.

Mrs. Suthers led the group in several games. Refreshments were served to members and ten guests by Brenda and Roger Batenhorst.

The next regular meeting will be Nov. 20 in the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The First Baptist Church in Canyon sent several boxes of goods to the orphanage last spring, and she said this is an extension of that effort.

Items needed by the orphanage include:

Clothing—girls up to size 14 and boys up to size 18.

Baby things—clothing, blankets, diapers, powder, pins, shoes, socks, plastic pants, vaseline, bottles, lotion, oil and Q-tips.

Linen—twin sheets, pillows, mattress pads and lightweight blankets.

Toilet articles—tooth brushes, tooth paste, shampoo, combs, brushes, wash cloths, hand towels, bath towels and small mirrors.

Raillard Heads Institute Panel

Raymond Raillard, executive vice-president of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation and manager of the "Texas" production, is attending the Institute of Outdoor Drama in Chapel Hill, N.C. this week.

Raillard will be a featured participant in the program, heading a panel on box office procedures. He will discuss the "Texas" practice of making reservations on credit, a procedure rarely used by outdoor dramatic productions.

Accompanying the "Texas" manager on the trip was his wife, Mrs. Raillard. They left Monday and will return Friday, stopping at gift and novelty shops en route home to look over possible new items for the "Texas" souvenir shop.

JV's Ease By Lefors Team

The Canyon High junior varsity slipped by Lefors 15-14 in action last Thursday and face an open date this afternoon.

The Junior Eagles scored in the second and fourth quarters with a run by Adrian Foil in the final period for two points making the game difference.

Foil scored in the second quarter on an 80-yard run for the first JV score and Dennis Collier's kick made it 7-0.

The Lefors team rebounded in the fourth quarter with a score and then ran the extra point try to make the score 8-7.

Canyon's Jerry Collins scored again for Canyon in the fourth stanza on an 8-yard run and Foil made the two point conversion on a run, making the score 15-8.

With just a minute to go in the play, Lefors made their final score and an extra point pass attempt failed to give the JV team from Canyon their win.

The JVs voted Steve Brandt outstanding offensive lineman and Collins outstanding offensive back. Dennis Collier was named outstanding defensive lineman and Andy Grimes took home outstanding defensive back honors.

Mrs. Frank Kimbrough, center, accepted a plaque Saturday night preceding the West Texas State University football game in commemoration of the dedication of Buffalo Bowl as Kimbrough Memorial Stadium. The dedication was in honor of her late husband, who was athletic director and coach at WTSU for many years.

ADPI's Gather For Two Events

Alpha Delta Pi alumnae have gathered for two recent events — one, a surprise "come as you are" breakfast, and the other, their regular business meeting.

The "come as you are" breakfast was given at 7:30 a.m., Saturday, Oct. 7, in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Olsen, 506 Taylor Lane, for alumnae and pledges. Hostesses to the 35 members present were Mrs. Harriet Brandon, Mrs. Katie Chitwood, and Mrs. Marita Crowder.

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 10, a regular business meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Ronald Taylor, 1409 Hillcrest, with 15 members present. Plans were made to sponsor a cake walk in the Canyon Halloween Carnival, and Mrs. Thomas Cannon was elected reporter-historian to replace Mrs. Willis Harrison.

The sorority's next scheduled event is a coffee on Nov. 14 in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Olson.

Student Hurt In Accident

A sophomore student at West Texas State University was injured Monday night when her hand was caught in a dumbwaiter in the east cafeteria on campus.

Jane A. Wright of Perryton was treated at Neblett Hospital and released.

Fire Capt. Joe Rice, who along with other firemen worked more than an hour to free the girl's arm from the machine, said Miss Wright did not appear seriously injured.

Sherman Acres News Joneses Attend Dallas Meeting

By MARY JO GRIFFIN

A HAPPY WEEK to you all on this third week of October and the ninth week of school. Time is really getting by fast! Haven't learned a terrible lot this week, but will pass on these few items.

MR. AND MRS. Sherman Jones and Lee Don were in the Dallas-Fort Worth area recently. They attended the district meeting of the Indoor Sports Club in Denton and visited with several relatives. Sherman attended the Cowboy football game in Dallas. Their daughter and her husband Marsha and Tommy Goodwin are guests in their home this week.

GEORGE AND PEGGY White's little Todd is one year old today. Happy birthday Todd, and make that one candle and wish a good one.

GUESTS LAST WEEK in the home of Herb and Betty Hall and family were Herb's parents Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hall and an aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reed all of Vernon.

The Needs are former residents of Amarillo and spent some time visiting with friends and relatives there. Also Sunday night the Halls were hosts to the Home Builders Sunday School Class of the Amarillo Bible Church. Twenty guests attended and they elected class officers and enjoyed visiting and refreshments.

THE HAUNTED HOUSE will be opening Friday night in the old First National Bank Building and is being sponsored by the Band Parents organization. Mrs. Verona Collier is chairman and the price of admission is 50 cents. There will be eight rooms of the very unexpected! Each room has its own ghosts and ghouls. Guides will be eager to escort the not-so-brave. So, be you nine or 90 (or any other age) come and enjoy it. The dates for this Haunted House to be open are tomorrow and Saturday, next week on Thursday, Friday and Saturday and the next week on Monday and Tuesday which is Halloween. The opening hour will be at 7:00 each day listed. Also you will see the concession stand sponsored by the choir in the building too. This is done by all bands in the Canyon school district and the money raised will benefit the bands in the purchase of instruments, music and teaching aids needed by the directors and students.

ALSO HEARD SUCH nice comments on the spaghetti supper last Friday night. The decorations on the patriotic theme were fantastic and it was so like a festive banquet. The sponsors were very happy with the success of the evening.

BRENDA HALL AND Anita Boss will be celebrating birthdays Saturday, Oct. 21. A very happy day and a good year ahead to both girls.

RECENT GUESTS IN the home of Mr. and Mrs. Odis Houk and family were Freida's mother Mrs. Norman Lane, an aunt Mrs. Ethel Shults and her grandfather Mr. Jake Ladyman who were on a return trip from California to their homes in Vernon. They got together and made pictures and celebrated having five generations in the family. The five being Mr. Ladyman, Mrs. Lane, Frieda Houk, Randy Houk and the baby, Randy Dean Houk. This baby is also a member of five generations in another direction of the family.

THERE IS AN urgent need for black plastic material to cover windows with. If you have some and would like to see it in the Haunted House call Mariellen Garner at 655-2495 and they will be very grateful for it.

THANK YOU FOR the calls this week.

Winning Film Due Showing

"David and Lisa," Frank and Eleanor Perry's highly acclaimed film of the delicate relationship between two emotionally disturbed teenagers, will be presented Wednesday at West Texas State University.

The film, an offering of the Student Activities Council series, will be shown at 11:30 a.m. in the Activities Center ballroom. Admission is 75 cents.

"David and Lisa" focuses on the encounter of two sensitive personalities. David, who lives in fear of being touched, feels himself "touched" by the isolation of Lisa, a schizophrenic.

Discovering that one of Lisa's two identities is able to communicate in nonsense rhyme, David tries to overcome his rejection of emotional contact through his efforts to reach out to Lisa's lost self.

The film won three major awards at the Venice and San Francisco film festivals, received two Academy Award nominations, and appeared on the New York Film Critics 10 best list of 1962.

Gene Howe Class In Columbus Skit

The sixth grade class of Mrs. Marion Schoemaker at Gene Howe Elementary School Thursday morning presented a Columbus Day program to the members of other sixth grade classes.

Students of the class wrote the parts and designed and made their own costumes. The project involved the entire class, with more than 25 students taking part.

The story covered the history of Christopher Columbus, the Italian seaman and explorer credited with discovering America.

Two performances were held in the school's all purpose room.

Mrs. Shoemaker's 6th grade home room at Gene Howe presented a play for the student body on Columbus Day, Oct. 12. Three of the characters are pictured here: Terry Rudd as Columbus, Dan Whipple as King Ferdinand, and Lisa Erwin as Queen Isabella.

William A. Moore of the speech department at West Texas State University was honored Saturday by West Texas State Ex-Students, Inc., with a president's special award. Also honored at the luncheon was Mrs. Lucille Nance Jones.

Halloween Plans Set

The members of Alpha Theta Delta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Steve Hines, 1008 5th St., Monday evening, with Mrs. Ray Grimes, president, presiding. Mrs. Paul Stevenson and Mrs. Dickey Maxwell were welcomed as new pledges.

Ways and Means Chairman, Mrs. Mike Lewis, gave plans for a booth at the Halloween Carnival. As social chairman, Mrs. Lewis also announced a masquerade dance to be held October 27, for members and their husbands in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, 2516 11th Ave.

Mrs. Lewis presented a program, "Her Crowning Glory." She told of hairstyling as far back as the Stone Age, showing pictures of various hairstyles down through history. Mrs. Lewis gave a wig-styling demonstration and informed the members of what factors to look for in purchasing hairpieces.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Kenny Conway, Mrs. Ray Grimes, Mrs. James Hill, Mrs. Hines, Mrs. Henry Lewis, Mrs. Mike Lewis, Mrs. Herbert Kuhlman, Mrs. Maxwell, Mrs. Johnny Robinson, and Mrs. Stevenson.

You Can Be A Distributor

One of the world's leading producers of aluminum, who is now marketing a complete line of products to chain supermarkets, discount stores, and other national chain accounts, wishes to expand their distribution in your area. The search is on for a highly qualified individual to control distribution to independent supermarkets and drug, hardware, and variety merchandisers locally. If you are responsible, of good character, and eager to make money in a business of your own, you could be a local distributor. Previous experience is not necessary, we will train you to be successful. You can start on a limited basis for as little as $2995.00 and continue your present job. However, the distributor selected must be ambitious and should plan on earning his living from this business as soon as possible.

Over 40 Entered In Steer Roping--Wranglers Score

By MARY NEAL HENRY

WELCOME TO THE columnist's life, Skip. Skip Simons will be writing now for the Happy paper since Judy has "gone to work" . . . salaried, that is. Anna Bee, I had to laugh at the way you expressed it, because it is a joke when someone asks a homemaker and mother, wife, housekeeper, cook, maid, valet, chauffeur, den mother, civic worker, errand boy, truck driver, bookkeeper, interior decorator, painter, gardener, seamstress, hired hand, etc., "Do you work?" Of course, they mean, "Are you employed for a salary?" None of the aforementioned pays! That is why Judy went to work. HA!

There is no telling what that Skip will come up with. She writes poetry with no effort and can do most anything.

THE HAPPY RODEO Association's Wesley — Sims Memorial Roping is this weekend. Saturday, around forty top calf ropers will compete for several hundred dollars prize money. Only the top ten will rope a fourth head of stock. Happy's own Dick Zachry won this event last year. Another saddle will be presented to the winner this year.

SATURDAY EVENING THERE will be a dance at the Jaycee Hall but it will be sponsored by the Happy Rodeo Association as it has been in all the past years. I got quite a lecture on that "miscue." Don't you know the president's wife "don't know nothing?"

SUNDAY AFTERNOON AT 2:00, the steer roping will begin. About forty top steer ropers will trip three steers and the ten with the best times will be given that fourth head of stock to win around $10,000 in prize money and a trophy saddle. Shoat Webster won this event last year. You all come . . . to Happy Rodeo Arena, Oct. 21, and 22 at 2 p.m. You'll have to be there even earlier than that if you want to be there for the introduction of ropers.

MRS. GRAHAM PURCELL'S coffee is today at Mrs. Foster Harman's, 602 Main in Happy. Come and coffee between 2:30 and 5 p.m.

GAY FELLERS, SINCE we are friends, and I drank a Republican coke, you better come by and drink a cup of Democratic coffee.

ELZO GUEST WAS operated on in Neblett Hospital Wednesday of last week. The operation was a hernia repair and Elzo is home now and recuperating nicely.

LENA AND BABE Walberg and their good friends, Speck and Susie Aikeman of Olton, left last Friday to visit Nancy and Melvin Smith. They took in the big game at Dallas on Saturday — not O.U. and Texas — Robin's junior high game.

MARY JANE MILLER and her mother, Mrs. Ola Smythe, flew to Tampa, Fla., last Thursday. Mrs. Smythe stayed in Florida to visit relatives and Mary Jane returned on Monday.

JESSIE C. LANE entered St. Anthony's Hospital for tests last Wednesday and Thursday. She is at home again now, but still not active.

STEVE ALTMAN, I apologize! Steve won second and a certificate in the ten-year-old division of the Regional Punt, Pass and Kick in Amarillo. Two lines were participating at the same time and I wasn't on Steve's line. Belated

Congratulations, Steve! MARY AND EDDIE Womack have been to Nacogdoches visiting the David Womacks.

LINDA SWANSON WORKED in Mary's place while she was visiting.

WYLIE QUATTLEBAUM OF the Ceta Glen Canyon recently had a family reunion. Six sisters and two brothers attended — making the family ALL present. (Isn't that marvelous. We can't even get four together.) The group included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ford; Mrs. Ann Pullig and her daughter and a son, Monte of Littlefield; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Barten, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Heckrodt, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Quattlebaum and Floyd Quattlebaum of Elk City, Okla.; Mrs. Paul W. Abell of Woodland Hills, Calif.; Mrs. Helen Wright of Santa Maria, Calif.; Mrs. Wayne Land, Dexter, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Quattlebaum and daughters, Cindy and Kay of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Owen Harris of Leedey, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quattlebaum of Atlanta, Ga.; and son, Bland of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Harris of Borger; and of course, Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Quattlebaum. I visited Mrs. Quattlebaum last spring during the contest and they have a lovely new home in the canyon. With the natural landscaping, it is beautiful.

WRANGLERS FINALLY SCORED. Eddie Joe Pearson ran a kick-off back to score and Donnie Oler threw an outstanding block (downing two men) to help make that score possible. We lost to River Road 28 to 6, but our feelings were all soothed anyway.

COWBOYS HAD AN open date on Friday. BOYS AND DADS that spent the night at the Baptist encampment at Floydada last Friday night were Brother Paul Heil and his Shawn; Duane Walker and his Chuck, Rod, and David; Dick Railsback and his Scott; Wayne Cope and his Bill; Pete Odum and his Kevin and Kyle; Ed Wright and his Vint Bonner, Richard Hampton and his Gregg; Mark, Tackitt, Raphe Shipman, Roy Dee Thompson, Darren Johnson, Monty Johnson, and David Martin Lane. They climbed that hill they had in mind . . . and several other things, I think. JUDY SHIPMAN WAS honored with a coffee in the home of Barbara Danner, Sunnyhill Home Demonstration Club President, last Friday morning. Judy will be unable to be a club member because she will be employed by the First State Bank. The club presented Judy a roadrunner pen and a necklace for her many years of service and loyalty to the club. Judy was serving as Council Delegate, but we'll have to elect another at the next meeting. Enjoying the morning were Lou Dougherty, Shirley Williams, Phyllis Bryan, Gwynn Tueck and Melissa, Sharon McCarley and Bill, Jo Hand, Helen Bryan and Rowdy, Maurine Allison and Barbara and Judy.

DONNA ANN MAGNESS was honored with a lingerie shower on Friday evening at Kay Venhaus' home. Susan Rahlfs, Judy Shipman, Della Venhaus, and Dottie Foster helped as hostesses. Donna looked very happy indeed in her rust pant suit and shoes of matching hue. And received the most luxurious "stuff" I've seen in many a moon. Mary Ann, her Mom, was there, and Debbie, her lil' sis, Sweetie Johnson, and grandmothers, Leona McFarland and Clara Magness, more kin' folks, Helen McFarland, Kippa McFarland, Zane Carter, and then Jeanne Johnson (well, that will be "kin") and Sandra Maynard, Kay Penn, Jeannie Todd and her son, Tanya McCarley and Cory Neil, Ann Payne, Phyllis Bradley, and myself and the hostesses. They served us that good banana punch and jelly roll cake, mints and nuts. I remember some that sent gifts, like Della Henry, Donna Bryan and Sandy Morgan.

DONNA ANN AND Randy Johnson were married on Saturday afternoon in Canyon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conway Kuykendall. They were going to be married in Canyon and so Joanna offered her home, very nice gesture. It was a family affair, Don, Mary Ann and Debra Magness, Cone and Sweetie Johnson, Ronnie and Jeanne Johnson and Susan and Lloyd Rahlfs. They served wedding cake and punch to the wedding party. They were married by Brother Finley. (And he'd taught Don at WT). They'll have a wedding picture in the paper soon. Watch for it in a Sunday edition.

CHERYL SCHAEFFER WAS honored with a bridal shower at Fellowship Baptist Hall on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 14, from 3 to 5 p.m. Colleen Schaeffer was ill and so Mrs. Melton Schaeffer stood in the receiving line with Cheryl, and her future mother-in-law, Mrs. LeRoy Morris of Dumas. Mildred Devin welcomed guests also. They were registered by Sandy DuBois and Rita Williams, Mrs. Russell Kruger, Janice and Pamman, and Kathy Allen served punch and cake from a table of white centered with a centerpiece of orchids and purples. Cheryl Schaeffer wore a floor length print dress with white collar and cuffs and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Morris wore a floor-length ensemble of pinks. They both looked lovely. Hostesses for the occasion were: Mesdames Clayton Devin, Jerral Mayes, Bill Allen, Frank Briscoe, Charles Wilson, O. H. Rahlfs, Jack Sutton, Foy Moudy, Bill Dugan and Cindy, Foster Harman, Lena Belle Cabe, Clifford Stevens, George Venhaus, Evans Holland, Nathan Hovey, Roman Weavers, Alvin Moudy, Morlan McCanigal, Bill Hinton, Tom Henry, Dean Todd, Fay Hand, W. T. Robinson, Robert Williams, Si Elliott, Carl Bryan, Bruce Fields, John Butlers, Babe Walberg, Adrian Bates, and Peggy, Dale Whitlow, Johnny Parker, Vivian Wesley, N. F. Johnson, Bob Lester Bryan, Ed Flaherty, Jack Middleton, Danny White, Carol Sims, and George Woods.

DELORES ALLEN AND her Kathy and Dean were in Happy Saturday afternoon. Delores helped with Cheryl's shower. Kathy is also wearing an engagement ring, but they haven't set the date. It is pretty, Kathy! WICKY CULP, BILLY Jackson, Stuart Tackitt, Wendy Sims, and Lee Moore went to the National F. F. A. Convention in Kansas City this week. They flew. They took in the fat stock show and Wicky received his American Star Farmer Award. EIGHTH GRADE CLASS sponsored by Sherry Walker, Billie Pearson, Louise and George White went skating on their class party Friday evening. FAYE HAND DROVE the church bus to the Acteens skating party on Saturday night. This group was sponsored by Faye and Jo Hand and Judy Shipman. Attending were Star Turner, Brenda Penn, Nancy Woods, Pearl Perez, Denise Cope, Bobbyetta Butler, Colette McCarley, Connie Hand, Valerie Tipps, Kim McCaslin, Becky Stubblefield, Bonnie Brisco, Patricia Geauthreaux, Nancy Ruth White and Mandi and Raphe Shipman. I heard about one "wreck" on skates. DELTA ROBERTS, WHO was crowned Homecoming Queen at West Texas last Friday night, is Bud and Cora Bell Roberts' younger daughter. We were most pleased with the judges' choice. ALLENE LITTLEFIELD WAS surprised with a birthday party on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Minnie Via, Louise Stubblefield, Alice Penn, Romona Weavers, Josephine Garcia, Irene Uselding, Johnny McCarley, Ruth Aikens, Murie White, and Roberta Cox took gifts and birthday cake and a good time. ROBERTA AND BUD Cox were in Amarillo on Sunday helping Wilma Berry celebrate her birthday. BILLY K. ODOM has been promoted to Lieutenant in the Police Force and has been transferred from Willits to Fort Bragg, Calif. Congratulations, Billy K. and Ruth Alice! ANNIE LEMMONS VISITED in Happy with Roberta Cox on Saturday afternoon. ALDEN MANN IS still in Temple after getting a new steel knee and plastic knee cap. He has suffered great discomfort and will appreciate your remembering him. Jan and Jack Ratjen of Mansfield, Texas, have been to Temple to visit with Ruth and Alden. SOPHOMORE CLASS HAD a party Saturday afternoon at the West Texas Activity Center and supper at Stephens. La Venna Jackson, La Nelle Todd, Rosanell Payne, and Sandy Morgan sponsored this party. BILLY JACKSON SPENT Thursday evening in the home of his uncle, Jim Steadman, in Overland Park, which is a suburb of Kansas City. (This was during the F.F.A. Convention.) AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY met recently in the Hospitality Room of the First State Bank. They planned a bake sale to be held Oct. 28 beginning at 9:30. This will help finance their Girls' State Program. AN AMERICANISM PROGRAM will be sponsored at the school on Friday, Nov. 10. Poppies will also be sold. La Venna Jackson is chairman of this.

BOXES WILL BE placed in local business for collection of gifts for the Veterans to give to loved ones at Christmas. Leola Sexton is chairman of this project.

THE NEXT ZONE meeting will be in Hart. Jack Flynt is the new zone commander.

MAURINE ALLISON WAS appointed parliamentarian. MARY ANN SIMS is a new junior member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

LA VENNA JACKSON took Ronnie Jackson, Gordon

3rd Graders Hold Poster Contest

The students of Mrs. Sue Hooper's third grade class at Rex Reeves Elementary School, in cooperation with the band parent's Haunted House venture, this week conducted a "scary poster" contest.

Twenty four members of the class entered 48 posters which, according to the judges, were too good to single out just one winner, resulting in the naming of four first place ties.

The winners were Blair Garner, Trent Miller, Lori Fischbacher and Ricky Valdez.

Judges for the contest were J. W. King, high school band director, and Gary Laramore, director of the junior high band, and Mrs. Laramore.

Each winner was presented two tickets to the Haunted House located on the downtown square, and a family ticket was given to Mrs. Hooper for her cooperation.

Many of the posters will be on display throughout the city, one spokesman said.

Hawthorne. Michael Schoenenberger, Lonnie Tackitt, Steve Crabtree, Andy Butler and Genie Jackson skating on Saturday night. They stopped at Mr. Burger in Canyon on the way home.

LA VENNA AND Eugene Jackson and their Ronnie, Billy, and Genie visited Debra on Sunday afternoon during dorm visiting hours. Debra Jackson has been accepted by Weavers Airline school and has also begun her correspondent course while attending WT.

HERE IS A news item from a Denver newspaper a few years ago that was handed me by a friend, a friend of both mine and Dr. Robinson's. I hope he gets a chuckle out of it.

"DR. GLEN ROBINSON, Mayor of Happy, Texas, with Mrs. Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Peterson went to the Mile High Kennel Club Saturday night. It was Doc-His-Honor-the Mayor Robinson's first experience at a pari-mutual gambling setup, and he approached the bewildering operation with caution.

"HE PLACED WHAT he thought was a normal, modest $2 wager at a window where the man explained to him that you must bet on two dogs at once. This seemed odd to Doc, who only wanted to bet on one dog, but he went along with it.

"WHAT HE BOUGHT, all unknowing, was a quinea. And the hounds he picked at random, by number, paid him $149.60.

"WHICH IS A lovely way to go to the dogs for the first (or any other) time, hey, Doc?"

BEFORE SCHOOL WEDNESDAY night, I had a most pleasant surprise, Jim and

Eddie Cope and "our" Joda and Jeffna dropped by. Joda kept telling them all the way out here, that they weren't coming to my house, but they made it and I believe she was almost as surprised to see me as I was to see her. Tom summed it up well when he said, "Never thought I'd miss those kids so much." Jim and Eddie are living in a new 14 x 72 foot trailer home in Floydada now. You know that isn't too far to run see them, is it?

VIOLA BUCHANAN, WORTHY Matron of Happy Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, Willie Butler, Ruth Sims, Evelyn Dowd, Gladys Haley, Evelyn Shipman and myself are among the Happy Eastern Stars attending Grand Chapter in Fort Worth this week. Election is Thursday morning and there're old friends to greet and new ones to meet. Willie Butler left last Saturday and traveled with Loretta Rhoderick of Plainview. Viola Buchanan, Evelyn Shipman and Gladys Haley left Sunday. Ruth Sims, Evelyn David and I couldn't get off until Wednesday . . . in time to vote Thursday morning. Everyone will be on their way home Friday.

WE'LL BE BACK in time for the Rainbow Girls' hamburger supper on Friday night, Oct. 20. They begin serving at 5 and serve during and after the ball game, so get your ticket for a hamburger, french fries, and drink and you can also buy homemade pie, if you wish. This is the night we play Wilson, Oct. 20. See you at the school cafeteria!

See ya!

Fraud Squad Needed?

There may not be a "fraud squad" to police Randall County's precinct polling places during the November general election, but County Clerk LeRoy Hutton says he'll be watching things closely to ensure a fair election here.

Hutton admits the potential for election tampering exists in the county and within its system of punch-card voting.

But, he says a corresponding ballot security system insures election equity.

Hutton returned recently from a weekend workshop on ballot security in Austin, a workshop called by the Republican Party.

During the workshop, Hutton explained to other county clerks Randall County's system for dealing with the possibility of election fraud in the punch-card process.

"Ballot security for punch-card voting is different from that for paper ballots," Hutton said after returning, "because they're all going through the computer."

The Republicans, he said, "want to make sure these computers are counting the ballots right."

And, how does Randall County assure that the computer at West Texas State University is counting the ballots correctly?

By testing. Hutton said one public test is required by law.

"A public notice of the test has to be in the newspaper 48 hours before the test," he said, "and the public is allowed to witness the test."

Even though the state requires one test, Hutton makes two tests just to insure everything's right.

Prior to the public test, he and the operators at the WTSU computer center hold a mock election, using the actual election program and simulated ballots.

"Then, we take everything we used and lock it up and then do the official test," Hutton said.

Even so, Hutton says there's still a chance for election tampering, if not at the computer center, within the precincts themselves.

"In any election, it's the people who are the problem," he said. "Voting machines, computers or paper ballots can all be manipulated by people. I've never seen a machine of any type that was dishonest."

To check any possibility of election fraud, Hutton said Randall County provides at each precinct members of each party represented on the ballot.

And, Hutton insures that both Republicans and Democrats are among the personnel working in election central at the computer center.

Hutton said he's certain Randall County has never had any problem with election fraud.

But, if voters felt there was a problem, Texas law provides a recourse.

"In punch-card voting, it just takes one candidate or 25 voters to challenge the whole system," he said. "When you run punch-card voting in Texas, you run it like every box was going to district court. So, really this is another safeguard."

Another safeguard, according to Hutton, is the ability inherent in punch cards for audit.

In a voting machine, there is no chance for auditing a vote.

News Brief

Local members of Chi Upsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi attended an area convention last weekend in Borger.

Attending from Canyon were Mrs. Jack Sharp, Mrs. Carl Sims, Mrs. Lewel Johnston, Mrs. George Stevens, Mrs. Jerry Costley and Mrs. Meade Michael.

The four winners of first place ties in the "scary poster" contest conducted in Mrs. Sue Hooper's third grade Rex Reeves class were Lori Fischbacher, Ricky Valdez, Trent Miller and Blair Garner, shown here with their teacher.

The familiar face of Mrs. Eva Furlow, retiring, was seen Friday for the last time in the kitchen of the Canyon Junior High School cafeteria, where she has prepared meals for 27 years. She and her husband, Dick Furlow, will continue to live at 1218 3rd Ave.

Quaintly Victorian was Mrs. Eddie Poole, modeling this floor-length gown of ivory challis with bodice insets embroidered in tiny rose pattern. Carol Crain, in the background, narrated the fashion show at the Monday night meeting of the Heritage Woman's Club.

WT Director Named To Post In Association

Clifford B. Baker, director of student financial aids at West Texas State University, is the new vice president of the Texas Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators.

He also was reappointed to a two-year term on the executive committee at the association's meeting in San Antonio last week.

The association has a membership of about 240 financial aid directors from Texas higher education institutions.

Melvin Gouge of North Texas State University was elected president.

Heritage Club Views Smart Holiday Modes

A showing of high fashions, ideal for the coming holiday season, was viewed Monday evening at De'on's by Heritage Woman's Club.

Suits with a country classic look, featuring pleated skirts or wide-legged pants, and floor-length gowns with either a sophisticated 30's or quaint Victorian look abounded in the collection. The layered effect in combinations of patterns was modeled frequently.

Narrator for the show was Mrs. Claiborn Crain, who gave predictions for spring apparel as well. Fashion consultants present were Della Henry and Romona Elliott, owners of De'on's. Models included Mmes. Phillip Brown, Eddie Poole, Roy McGregor, Olan Lehman, and Jimmy Marrs.

Following the style show, members met in the home of Mrs. William Ritchie 1200 Creekmere. Hostesses who aided Mrs. Ritchie were Mrs. Pat Shehan and Mrs. Jim Perry. Mrs. Carl Hollabaugh, president, called the meeting to order.

"Carrousel of Stars" will be used as the theme of the talent show presented by the club on February 3. Mrs. Eddie Poole, chairman of the general committee for the show, gave a report on its progress.

Mrs. Ronnie Gordon reminded members of the Federated Council Game Night on December 2. Proceeds go to the Opportunity Plan benefit. Mrs. George Loudder gave a report on the Halloween Carnival that will take place in the Junior Livestock Building on Oct. 31.

The next club meeting will be Nov. 20 in the home of Mrs. Jimmy Marrs.

Linda Looney, Ellen Matney, Judy Rutz, Edna English, Carolyn Butler, Joy Davis, Ann Carlisle, Dianne Colgan, and Mrs. Dan Carlton.

Members present were Johnnie Gordon, Janie Loudder, Bonita Oliver, Marieta Crowder, Cleo Brown, Jan Hubbard, Carol Crain, Virginia Cotton, Marion Marrs, Janette Perry, Darlene Hollabaugh, Claudine Lehman, Harriet Brandon, Kathy Poole, Nancy Shehan, Mary Ada Ritchie, and Jill McGregor.

Canyon's Little Miss Will Be Selected

A total of 56 contestants will compete in the Little Miss Canyon Pageant to be staged Saturday evening in the Canyon High School auditorium at 7 p.m. The announcement was made by Virginia Rossiter, chairman, for Xi Kappa Zeta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, sponsoring group.

Miss Rossiter also announced judges for the event will be Loyd Senn, weatherman for KGNC, Channel 4, television station; Bill Sexton, master of ceremonies for "Noon Watch," a KGNC program; Mrs. Margaret Logan of Amarillo; and Mrs. Minnie Leamon, supervisor of the Pivot Point International Hair Design

School in Amarillo.

As in former years, contestants will be judged and awarded first and second prizes of $50 and $25 bonds in three age categories: Littlest Miss, ages 3-5; Little Miss, ages 6-9; and Junior Miss, ages 10-12. The first-place awards are being donated by Cooper's Market, Southwestern Public Service Co., and Parker Cattle Co., and second-place awards are being given by Kreme Kone Drive In, the Tweedle-Dee Children's Shop and Marie's Beauty Salon.

Crowns for the winners are being donated by Gibson's, bracelets for runners-up by LaGrone's, and courtesies for judges by Irwin Greenhouse.

Woody Pond will preside as "Old King Cole" over the pageant, which takes "Little Miss Canyon in Mother Goose Land" as its theme.

Mrs. Donna Wilson will present a choir of 4th, 5th and 6th grade girls between categories.

A rehearsal for contestants will be at 1 p.m., Saturday, in the high school auditorium.

Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children, at the door or from members.

News Brief

A Canyon woman recently passed the State Board of Examination for Vocational Nurses.

Rebecca C. Bland was one of 17 recent graduates of Amarillo College vocational nursing program to pass the examination.

To be eligible for the examination, each applicant must have completed 12 months of training.

Mrs. Jimmy Marrs modeled a pantsuit with the season's tweedy classic look and combination of patterns and textures. The fashions were all presented by De'on's.

Cowboys Ready For Wilson At Home

In what Happy coach Robert Criswell has termed "the biggest game of the year," the Cowboys take on Wilson at home Friday night.

The Cowboys, 4-1 for the season and 4-0 in district play, are currently rated fourth among class B football teams in Texas. The Mustangs from Wilson are defending District 2-B champions and are 4-1 on the season and 3-1 in district play.

According to Criswell, the Mustangs are "big and tough" with all of last year's team back this season. When asked about his team's chances of winning against Wilson, Criswell replied, "We have to."

Wilson was knocked out of state contention last year after winning the district and bi-district, losing in regional play.

Both teams had open dates last weekend and Happy spent the time in keeping sharp and in resting up one injured player and two suffering illness. "Everybody will be ready for Wilson," the coach said earlier this week.

The Cowboy attack, which has been ferocious in most of its games this year, is built around the running of halfbacks Greg Looney and Chris Pearson. The quarterbacking chores are handled by Mark Hargrave with Johnny Payne tending to the fullback slot.

An awesome line, with an average of 200 pounds, has performed near-miracles on both offense and defense. Only six points have been registered against the Cowboys since an opening game loss to Class-A Claude on Sept. 8. Their last opponent, Nazareth, managed six points after three consecutive shutouts had been administered by the Happy defense.

The home game is set for 8 p.m.

Two showings of "Only the Strong," a documentary which pleads for strong military defense, are scheduled this weekend on KGNC-TV in Amarillo.

Donald Todd of Canyon, chairman of the Committee of Concerned Citizens for an Improved Military Defense Against Communism, said the showings will be at 6:30 p.m. Friday and at 12:30 p.m. Saturday.

Book Review Set For Oct. 23

The Lou Lester Club, Past from any club member or at the finish the kitchen at the new Matrons' Club of the Order of the Eastern Star, will sponsor a book review by Ann Brown at 7:30 p.m., Oct. 23.

The review of "This Way To Happiness" will be held at the Canyon Community Center.

Tickets, at $1 each, are available

More and more people are wising up to the low cost of electric heat

More SPS customers switched to electric heat last year because they found out, through a free estimate, they could operate an electric heating system for little more than they were spending already. Do you think they made a wise decision? Ask any of them. They're our most convincing salesmen. And, ask us for an operating cost estimate. It's free. It's accurate. It's a real eye-opener.

Palisades Palaver Bus Problems Probed By Reporter

BY VICKI HOOKER

BUS DRIVERS FOR the Palisades route have had problems in the past, and this year's driver, Denny Buck, is no exception. He even admitted that he was warned about this route before he even took the job. And one of the warnings he received was to assign seats — first thing! But having faith in our youngsters, he said no, that assigning seats would be a last resort.

IT SEEMS AS though the Palisades group (probably just a few) decided they couldn't get along with the Rockwell Acres group, the bus picks up on its way back to Canyon. Palisades contended that it was their bus, and as the problem grew the kids from Rockwell Acres tagged our group with the name "bullies."

FINALLY, LAST WEEK Denny assigned seats, and has probably made a few enemies. Or could it be that this is just an excuse to give him more trouble?

NOT ONLY DID he assign seats, but he has also started picking up on the south side only as he leaves the canyon, loading the bus from front to back. This may be a major issue with some of you, but Denny says that it has helped tremendously in evening out the load on the bus, and by not having to make so many unnecessary stops he has saved time as well as wear and tear on the bus. In my opinion, it was a very wise decision, but I have no children riding the bus. Here are

WHATS NEW?

What is new at Dan's 5th Ave.? A crochet primer—48 easy-to-do crochet patterns, $1.25; a knit loom to knit without needles, $2.00; a yarn cutter will cut yarn 2 1/4" to 2 3/4", $2.00; broomstick crochet instructions and supplies; large selection of variegated Red Heart 100% wool yarn, .99; adorable alphabet crib cover needle craft kit, size 40 x 60, quilted and ready-sewn with embroidery thread; and macrame wooden beads—many sizes and colors, jute and macrame cord. some of the comments from those who do:

NELL MOORE: "I'm glad the boys catch the bus a little later. It gives them time to eat breakfast." As far as the seating she commented that it was all right with her and the boys. She said, as most parents did, that she expected the boys to behave on the bus, and if assigned seats was the answer, then she was for it.

JUDY WEBB, JOYCE McDonald, and Audrey Mitchell all felt that it was unfair to have the kids ride three to a seat while the Rockwell Acres kids weren't on the bus. They thought they should be allowed to spread out some when room allowed.

MILDRED TURNER SAID her girls were contented with the seating set-up. Mildred commented that she felt it was a good idea, since it gave them a chance to get acquainted with different people.

ARLINE HOOKER BACKED the driver all the way when she said she felt like he should do whatever possible to maintain discipline, even if it meant assigned seats.

"ANYTHING THE BUS driver does, he does in self-defense," was the reaction from Marcella Carlile. She felt the assigned seating was good, even if it was just a safety precaution.

THE ONLY REAL complaints came from the kids, mostly because they are not sitting with whom they want to. But one can't please all of the people all of the time, and one thing can be said for our driver. He does have the upper hand on that bus, and I'm sure none of us would want his job. If those of you who feel the seating situation on the bus is too crowded for too long a time, maybe you should catch the driver some day and tell him. He would probably be glad to work with you anyway possible. As he said, "I'm a totally different person off this bus. I love kids and people and I love working with them. But I won't let them run over me!" And I can't say I blame him!

JO DELLE WALKER returned last Sunday from a three-day trip to Denton where she attended a language workshop of the Montessori system. The workshop was in a private school for two-year-olds through twelfth graders called Selwyn.

JO SAID SHE felt like she really profited from attending the workshop, and that she brought back new and improved methods of presenting the language to her own students, ages four to six at the Wee Wisdom Montessori school in Amarillo. She is one of three teachers in the afternoon session at the school teaching 20 youngsters. What a rewarding job it must be too, to watch all those little ones learning and growing day by day! Anyway, welcome home, Jo. Glad you had a safe and enjoyable trip.

WHILE JO DELLE was away, her son Jamie brought home another first place trophy from the Pit. He won it in the 100 C.C. class, beating his long-time rival from Stinnett, Clyde Barker, who is now a professional. Congratulations, again, Jamie!

HAVEN'T GOTTEN TO talk to her, but we'd like to welcome our new neighbor, Edith Fletcher. She recently moved into a double-wide trailer on the lot at the "Y." Maybe by next week we'll have some information about her.

WE'LL ALSO BE having some new neighbors in the McCarth's place soon. According to Judy Webb, it has sold. More on that later too.

Canyon Entrants Take Art Places

Three Canyon entrants in the Amarillo Fine Arts Assn. Best of the Southwest Art Show held Saturday won honorable mentions in sculpture. They were: Darold Dean Smith, with his mixed-media entry, "Jonah and the Fish"; Andrew V. Wilks, with his bronze, "Storyteller"; and J. D. Whitaker, with his bronze, "Gridmirari."

A total of 280 entries, including 74 works in sculpture, were entered in the event which also included various methods of painting.

The judging was done by Dale Hamlett, assistant professor of art at Eastern New Mexico State University. The items will be on display at the Western Plaza mall through this Saturday.

demonstration club meeting. Judy Dettner, who lives on the Claude Highway, made it known that she wishes to start a 4-H Club in this area for 9-10 year olds. If you have girls that age that may be interested you may give Judy a call at 622-0191.

THIS WEEK WE salute Mildred Turner's squirrels, who keep her busy each morning delivering everything from nuts to Gravy Train to her window sill, where they wait until fed. She says they don't eat from hand yet, but she knows they will be soon!

AT THE BOARD meeting last week we learned that it was Jack Inman who took the time and effort to paint the mailbox rails the same color as the mailboxes. Many thanks to you, Jack, and also to Jim Wright, who painted the northside bridge rails. They really look nice!

Business at the meeting included plans for painting the gate, setting a date for auditing the books, and repairing a 4,000 pound roller bought by the Club. Following the adjournment, a delicious tunnel-o-fudge cake baked by June Hooker and coffee were enjoyed by all, including me! (Pays to sit in on those meetings, you know?)

CORRECTION ON LAST week's column concerning the Home Demonstration Club meeting, Next Thursday, Oct. 26 we will have our noon luncheon at Reba Guess'. Everyone should bring a covered dish. Following the luncheon we will have a baby shower for Reba's daughter-in-law, Becky. Be sure to come. Should be a lot of fun!

DON'T FORGET THE Haunted House sponsored by the Canyon Band Parents this weekend! And how could you forget the Festive Foods program next Thursday Oct. 26, at the Farm Bureau in Canyon. There will be two programs, one at 10:00 a.m. and one at 1:30 p.m. It's always very informative and the samples of holiday foods plus the free cookbooks really make the trip worthwhile.

NO NEWS TIPS this week; therefore no winners! Can you imagine that? I had to do all the calling. Oh, well, just part of the trauma of a reporter's life! (Sorry 'bout that!)

BELATED BIRTHDAY GREETINGS to Phil Boothe on the 18th, and happy birthday to his wife Ellie on the 21st.

THE NUMBER IS still 622-1439. I hope some of you call this week. Sure gets quiet 'round here!

Frosh To Meet North Texans

West Texas State University's freshman football team hosts the North Texas State Freshmen at 7:30 p.m. today in Frank Kimbrough Memorial Stadium and coach Ronnie Mankin hopes his young Buffaloes can push their record above the .500 mark.

The young Buffs defeated Cisco Junior College, 17-7, in their opener, but fell to powerful Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College, 21-13, two weeks ago in Miami, Okla.

North Texas State's freshman team has fallen to Monterey Tech, 21-19, and Navarro Junior College, 61-0.

Mankin will probably start Big Spring's Mike Adams at quarterback. Eddie Richardson of San Angelo will start at left halfback. Borger's Johnny Darden will be at fullback and either Melton Brooks of Borger and Kelvin Cesar of Abilene

In the secondary, Mankin will start Aaron Gilbreath and Richardson at the corner back berths and Cesar and Gordon Jarman at the safety positions. Admission to the game will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Thursday Club Meets At Tow's

By TOOTIE BYBEE

HELLO AGAIN FROM this little Oasis to you wherever you happen to be. Guess we have all been pretty busy this week with all the activities going on around us.

THANKS TO MIKE Whitehead for the following information: The Indian Guides first year Tribe was organized in the Whitehead home Thursday, Oct. 12. There were seven boys and seven dads who are members. The Chief was selected and is Roger Whitehead. The Assistant Chief is Duane Howard. Wampum Bearer is Larry Brooks and Eugene Oldham is Tally Keeper.

The meetings will be held twice a month on 2nd and 4th Thursdays. The next meeting will be at the Duane Howard's home at 8:00.

Thursday, October 19. Plans for a camp-out the 28th are already underway. There is still room in the Tribe for a few more members. If you are interested and missed the organizational meeting, you are invited to attend. The Howard's home number is 352-8600. Good luck to this new venture of Dad and son fun.

WANT TO SEND a "Get Well Quick" to Steve Buckles and hope his eye is better and he'll be out and about on his bike again real soon.

HEARD THE TOW'S had a real exciting ride on their motors Saturday. They and the Bob Tow gang and a few others rode the river to Memphis and had a cold but good time together. One fatality reported, that of a rattlesnake that Uncle Bob and Mike killed.

THE LADIES THURSDAY Club met at Ann Tow's and had lunch together and shared a very good time. To those of you who had to miss this week, we sure did miss you too. Enjoyed a fine day together. We will be hearing from the Home Demonstration Club soon and hope we can organize to meet a couple times a month on this. Plus, be reading the book, at least the first two chapters of "The Late Great Planet Earth."

We will start our study of this also. Be ready for a year of good times together.

BLANCHE HUDSON SPENT Friday with her sister and mother-in-law in Amarillo shopping for a wedding dress for her sister-in-law who is soon to marry. This of course was Mike's folks who were down from Melrose, N.M. to visit and shop, (and check on Blanche). I suppose everyone is checking on Blanche these days. Can't wait.

Inexperience Key To Buff Basketball Season In '72

Coach Dennis Walling's West Texas State University basketball team began practice Monday afternoon and for at least the first two days, went after it twice daily.

Walling, along with assistants Dale Blaut and Mike Mitchell, drilled the players early in the afternoon and then called them back for night sessions on Monday and Tuesday.

Wednesday was press day, and the team posed for pictures and took part in interviews before hitting it for one session.

Walling returns only one starter from last year's team, which compiled a 15-11 record, so he is looking at an inexperienced squad to start practice.

Jerry Christian, 6-6 senior from East Liverpool, Ohio, is the lone returning regular off last year's club. He scored 12 points per game and pulled in nine rebounds.

Also returning is 6-3 scoring ace Ray Golson, from the 1970-71 team. Golson scored 19.9 points per game in leading the Buffalo scoring attack that season. He was injured in the third game last year and missed the remainder of the season. The Missouri Valley Conference granted him one additional year of eligibility, so Golson will again be playing for Walling's "Maroon Madness."

Returning off last year's squad are guards Mike Rodriguez and Brent Lake, who saw considerable starting duties. Guard Kyle Sunderman started one game last year, as did forward Hector Rodriguez. Forward Jon McCoy started several games.

Joining the squad are a pair of junior college guards—Tommy Jordan and Jay Benn. Jordan, 6-5, is a high-scoring athlete from Philadelphia, who played at South Plains Junior College in Levelland, Texas. Benn is from Mason City, Ia.

Freshman forward Reginald Ramey, 6-8, could see some varsity action. The 21-year-old Army veteran is also from Philadelphia.

Scott Doores, two-year letterman, and squadman Tom Brownfield are playing football on the Buffalo varsity and will get late starts. Doores has seen limited starting duty during his two years on the Buffalo cage teams.

Up from last year's freshman group are its two leading scorers—6-6 Robbie Graham and 6-7 Gary Francis. Graham, from Amarillo Caprock, supported a 19.5 scoring mark on the Buffalo freshman team, while Francis scored 13 points per game and led the club in rebounding.

Mrs. Addie Morgan Hefner

Mrs. Hefner, 102, Dies

Mrs. Addie Morgan Hefner, 102, died Sunday in Crosbyton Hospital.

A long-time resident of Canyon, Mrs. Hefner had lived in Crosbyton since February of this year.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Canyon First Baptist Church with the Rev. Bill Foil, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery by LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

Pallbearers were A. W. Wallace, Earl Edler, Bill Counselor, John Jennings, W. Battle Harris and Carl Eugene Hair.

Mrs. Hefner was born April 15, 1870, at Lead Hill, Ark. She later married James Levi Hefner in 1888. He preceded her in death on Oct. 31, 1932.

The Hefners moved to Canyon in January 1924 from Silverton.

Mrs. Hefner was a member of the Canyon First Baptist Church and for many years received the annual award from that church as the oldest mother on Mothers Day.

She had been a member of the Pioneer Club and the Mother-in-Law Club and was active in her Sunday school class.

Survivors include a son, O. B. Hefner of Crosbyton; daughters, Mrs. Otta Lee Elkins of Fort Worth, Mrs. Opal Dickerson of Orlando, Fla., Mrs. Treva Elliott and Mrs. Bertie Smith, both of Winter Garden, Fla.; grandchildren, James Inman, Jerre Inman, Harold Prichard, Neal Hefner, Joe Murray Hefner, Gordon Dickerson, Don Dickerson, Carol Ray Dickerson, Mozelle Cox, Jeleta Bigham and Temple Elliott.

Ex-Students Name Directors

Four new directors were named to the board of the West Texas State Ex-Students, Inc., during a meeting held last weekend on campus.

The four are John Blaine of Plainview, Dr. Lindsey Taylor, Amarillo, Don Patterson of Amarillo, and Joel Plunk of Pampa.

Seven directors were re-elected. They are Joe Sneed, Leo Forrest, Connally Lockhart, Don Jackson, all of Amarillo, Frank Wise of Dimmitt, Earl Whitten of Bovina and Bill Hunter of Dalhart.

Outgoing directors are Duane Byars, Henry Davis, Dwaine Mires and Mrs. Frances Whittenburg.

The directors take office Jan. 1. During November a special meeting of the board will be called to elect new officers for 1973.

Boosters Buy Whirlpool Bath

The Eagle Booster's Club, with some 20 members present Monday night, voted to buy a whirlpool bath for the girl's physical education program.

The unit, costing $500, has been ordered and should be installed within the next ten days, said president Elton Cox.

Coach Ron Mills introduced several players to the group and presented game-film highlights of last weekend's game with Palo Duro.

Mills, in discussing his team's sixth straight loss, noted that the Eagles gained more first downs and more total yardage than did the Dons. He cited failure to move the ball near the end of the field as the primary reason for the shutout loss.

In talking of Friday night's encounter with Levelland, Mills expressed confidence that his team would make a good showing against district competition after five weeks of going up against higher classed 4-A teams.

The coach said the team is working to improve the weaknesses discovered during the first part of the season against the strong opponents faced.

Eagle Boosters meet each Monday at 7 p.m. at the First National Bank in Canyon.

Mother-In-Law Club Holds Meet

The National Association of Mother-in-Law Clubs met for their regular luncheon and business meeting recently in the Amarillo Federation of Women's Clubs building. Mrs. W.R. Shackelford, president, presided.

Hostesses for the luncheon were members of the Palo Duro Mother-in-Law Club of Canyon, represented by Mrs. Ray Walters and Ethel Campfield.

During the business meeting the national association, comprising 13 clubs in the Panhandle, voted to give financial help to three nursing students from the Mamie Carter Walker Nursing Fund.

The next meeting of the club will be a Christmas party on Monday, Dec. 11 at 1:30 p.m. in the Victorian room of the clubhouse.

Tidbits here and there

THE TOP OF TEXAS BOARD MEETING

of the Texas Women's Clubs is scheduled today at the First Christian Church of Stratford.

Mrs. Don Max Vars will lead the meeting there and several Canyon clubwomen will attend the event.

The theme for the meeting is "Rediscover Panhandle Treasures."

FESTIVE FOODS will bake and test next Thursday in a program by that name given by the Southwestern Public Service.

The Randall County Home Demonstration Club Council is sponsoring the annual event—which is open to the public.

FREE RECIPE BOOKLETS will be available at the meeting—so get there early enough to get one! Sessions are scheduled from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m.

THE LITTLE MISS CANYON PAGEANT will be held Saturday night at 7 p.m. in the Canyon High School auditorium.

The event is being sponsored by the Xi Kappa Zeta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Tickets for the event are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

THE HALLOWEEN CARNIVAL is going to be held at the Bull Barn Oct. 31. There the youngsters can enjoy any number of different fun games. (So plan to attend.) The event is sponsored by the Canyon Study Club, by the way.

TALENT TIME IS FEBRUARY 3! Yes, prizes to those selected in three divisions as tops in talent will be named the night of February 3. Remind the entrants-to-be to start practicing early so that each act will have that finished look.

More on this later.

YES, THERE WILL BE A GAME NIGHT IN CANYON! It has been set for December 2 from 7 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. at the ballroom of the WTSU Activities Center.

Festive in nature, the games will feature yummy refreshments and door prizes. Tickets are $1 each and will benefit the Canyon Division of the Opportunity Plan.

The event will be sponsored by the Federated Council—so bring your bridge club, domino group, or whatever and plan on attending.

TASTE TESTED FROM THE "FESTIVE FOOD" Recipe booklet—ROAST CHICKEN WITH ALMOND-ORANGE GLAZE

1 large fryer
1 1/2 c. cornbread crumbs
1 c. bread crumbs
1/4 c. chopped onion
1/4 c. chopped celery
1 T. chopped parsley
1/2 c. sliced almonds
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. poultry seasoning
2 T. water
1/4 c. melted margarine

Prepare stuffing for chicken by combining crumbs, onion, celery, parsley, almonds, salt, poultry seasoning, water and margarine. Stuff bird. Place legs in tucked position and turn wing tips back. Brush generously with margarine and cover lightly with a tent of foil. Roast in a 325 oven for 2 1/2 to 3 hrs. During the last 15 minutes of roasting time, spoon the following over the chicken:

Glaze
4 tsp. cornstarch
1/4 tsp. ground ginger
1/2 c. white corn syrup
1 c. orange juice
1/4 c. slivered almonds

Mix cornstarch and ginger together. Stir in white corn syrup; add orange juice. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, about 5 to 7 minutes. Add almonds.

News Brief

Board members of the South Randall County Hospital District reviewed their monthly financial report Monday night during a regular meeting.

No other action was taken.

Administrator Ray Grimes said architect for the proposed 50-bed hospital to be constructed in Canyon visited the city last week to further discuss plans.

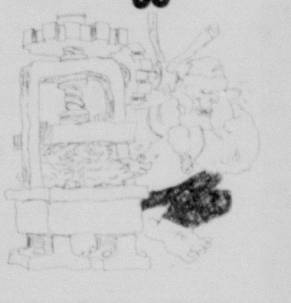

"We should be in the stage where we can start some concrete planning soon," he said.

Canyon Kids Inc., Teams Break Even

Four Canyon entries in Kids Inc. football were active over the weekend and early this week, chalking up two wins and two losses.

Playing at home Sunday, the Cyclones of coach Herb Hall fell to a strong Maverick Boy's Club team by a score of 8-0. The lone touchdown of the game came when Maverick managed to turn a broken play into a scrambled trek to the goal line. The two point conversion was tacked on via a rushing play.

According to Hall, the encounter was a "good game" which saw his ground attack halted against the unyielding Maverick line. The Cyclones did put on a good air show with quarterback Chris Wilkinson connecting on several occasions with tosses to Tracey Byrd, Bryan Pratt and Tommy Carruth.

The nearest the Cyclone ground game came to showing life was on the one or two times Tommy Carruth pulled off end-around runs which momentarily caught opposing defenders off guard.

The reward of this losing effort, said coach Hall, was in "watching the boys learn to play football."

In another home game Sunday, the Cougars bumped off Sunrise by a score of 14-0. Joey Cockrell got coach Don Rozell's team off to a winning start by ripping off 55 scoring yards on a double reverse. A two-point conversion made it 8-0 when quarterback Kendall Walling sneaked into the endzone.

The final Cougar tally came on a 25-yard pass from Walling to Gary Fletcher. The second conversion try was no good.

The Cougars have played four conference games this season, rolling up 72 points to the opposition's 25. Those 25 points came in the one contest lost by the Cougars, with all other opponents being held scoreless.

A determined Purple People Eater team, coached by Wayne Williams, traveled to Bonham Junior High Sunday and lost a 28-6 contest to Ridgcrest.

The People Eaters lone score came on a one-yard crash by Bruce Byrd after the play had been set up by a 50-to-55-yard dash by Doug Davis. Davis had been stopped about 10 yards short of the goal line just before Byrd took the ball in from the one-yard line. The conversion attempt failed when a pass fell incomplete.

According to coach Williams, Larry Mann turned in a good day on offense, hauling in several passes. Jeff McKay and Jack Hayes were cited for their outstanding efforts on the defensive side of the ledger.

The Eaters were beset throughout the contest by long runs dished up by Ridgcrest, including one kickoff return for a touchdown.

The Headhunters won their league championship Tuesday night when they blasted Belmar 6-0 in a game played at Austin Junior High in Amarillo.

The team, coached by Van James, took the top spot in the Cherokee 6th grade league and became the first Canyon eleven ever to go all the way in the Kids Inc. program.

It was the first loss for the strong Belmar team in two years and was the fourth consecutive shutout administered by the Headhunters.

The only touchdown of the night came when Eddie Clement pounced on a Belmar fumble in the endzone. The try for the points after failed.

Coach James said his boys played an outstanding game on defense and offensively managed to move the ball exceptionally well up and down the field. Fumbles, brought about by the wet field, kept the Headhunters from marching across the goal line on several occasions, said James.

The offensive attack, in what James called "a team effort," was led by the running of Billy Bender and young Clement.
